Ito,2018-08-06 Many indigenous Hawaiians who have moved to the islands cities languish at the bottom of the socioeconomic scale and are thought to have lost their cultural roots Initially apolitical urban Hawaiians were often skeptical of activists who sought to revitalize traditional ways yet as Karen L Ito shows Hawaiian women in particular continue to maintain and express crucial aspects of their cultural heritage in their lifestyle and interactions with others Ito conducted intensive fieldwork with six Honolulu families all of which shared the distinguishing characteristics of Hawaii s matrifocal society In her close examination of the friendships and family relations among the women in these households she focuses on the significance of a traditional manner of speech known as talk story which they use when conversing together She describes how her subjects employ metaphoric language to address issues concerning responsibility retribution understandings of self and personhood and methods for conflict resolution For these lady friends Ito finds the emotional quality and quantity of their social relationships help define personal identity while their common concepts of morality bind them together By applying ethnopsychological strategies to the exploration of culture Ito demonstrates cultural continuity at a level where most observers would not expect to find it Lady Friends brings a new dimension to Hawaiian research Children Astray Saul Drucker, Maurice Beck Hexter, 1923 Coping with your Grown Children Edwin L.
