Modernizing Women Valentine M. Moghadam,2003 Extrait de la pr face The subject of this study is social change in the Middle East North Africa and Afghanistan its impact on women s legal status and social positions and women s varied responses to and involmt in change processes It also deals with constructions of gender during periods of social and political change Social change is usually described in terms of modernization revolution cultural challenges and social movements Much of the standard literature on these topics does not examine women or gender and thus the author hopes this study will contribute to an appreciation of the significance of gender in the midst of change Neither are there many sociological studies on MENA and Afghansitan or studies on women in MENA and Afghanistan from a sociological perspective Myths and stereotypes abund regarding women Islam and the region and the sevents of September 11 and since have only compounded them This book is intended in part to normalize the Middle East by underscoring the salience of structural determinants other than religion It focuses on the major social change processes in the region to show how women s lives are shaped not only by Islam and culture but also by economic development the state class location and the world system Why the focus on women It is the autor s contention that middle class women are consciously and unconsciously major agents of social change in the region at the vanguard of movements for modernity democratization and citizenship
