Woodsie Again:

Tug McGinn James William Gibson,2007-12 Tug McGinn is an easy read and an entertaining story of a young man and the Indian scout he befriends In time they find Tug s brother and sister who had been taken captive by hostile Indians The conclusion of that search both pleased and shocked both of them Hawk and Tug build a ranch in the middle of Indian country Tug McGinn tells that story and of all the different and interesting characters that affected their lives along the way This story treats the relationship between the white men and the Indians in a far different manner than the usual western stories It chronicles the growth of the men s families There is love humor pain danger death and excitement along the way Tug McGinn is a serious action filled story that is sprinkled with a large portion of humor also The Hook and the Badge Jim Lynch,2008-04 A longshoreman has a clue about a murdered bartender from Charlestown a section of Boston Rather than endanger his family by going to the police he joins the force falls in love with a woman and works his way up to detective He uncovers secrets that point to the killer but must work quickly as the Irish Mafia seems to be looking for the same person

Woodside, Pear Tree Grove P.O. Erna Brodber,2004 Erna Brodber provides a lucid and literary social history of the village of Woodside in St Mary Jamaica from slavery to 1944 The work is beautifully and sensitively informed by a variety of official sources community meetings and oral histories The range of the sources interpreted deftly makes this a path breaking book in the social history of Jamaica Brodber s work is a pioneering contribution to the study of the ordinary people of Jamaica and can be used to stimulate and inform community development The book will appeal to historians and anthropologists Africans of the diaspora and general readers This work is the creative expression of the love affair between myself and the village in which was born and raised Woodside Pear Tree Grove P O combines the academic approach with fictive to produce a world in which the reader can walk a world he can claim because his story has been used to make a community tale grounded in orthodox historical facts Erna Brodber The Junior Republic Citizen ,1898 Woodside Farm Mrs. W.
