Squadintelligence Ops Michael Collins:

The Squad T. Ryle Dwyer, 2005 Based on recently released interviews The Squad throws a considerable amount of new light on the intelligence operations of Michael Collins Michael Collins's Intelligence War Michael T. Foy, 2008-08-01 Michael Collins is often thought of as Ireland's lost leader a man born into a revolutionary environment who became a skilled statesman and military leader His personality and actions fascinated both the Irish population and his British enemies who sought to repeatedly capture him Setting the secret war firmly within the context of the Irish capital at the time the author draws on an extensive range of primary sources including documents which have only recently been released to vividly recapture the atmosphere of the period Trading Secrets Mark Huband, 2012-12-14 Today's intelligence community faces challenges that would have been inconceivable only a dozen years ago Just as al Qaeda's destruction of the Twin Towers heralded a revolution in global diplomacy the events of 9/11 also threw two centuries of spy craft into turmoil because this new enemy could not be bought Gone were the sleepers and moles whose trade in secrets had sustained intelligence agencies in both peacetime and war A new method of intelligence had been born The award winning former Financial Times security correspondent Mark Huband here takes us deep inside this new unseen world of spies and intelligence With privileged access to intelligence officers from Rome to Kabul and from Khartoum to Guantanamo Bay he reveals how spies created secret channels to the IRA deceived Iran's terrorist allies frequently attempted to infiltrate al Qaeda and forced Libya to abandon its nuclear weapons Using accounts from ex KGB officers Huband vividly describes the devastation caused by the West's misreading of Soviet intentions in Africa and explains how ill prepared western intelligence agencies were when the Cold War was replaced by the perception of a new terrorist threat Benefiting from privileged access to intelligence sources across the world Trading Secrets provides a unique and controversial assessment of the catastrophic failure of spies to grasp the realities of the Taliban's grip on Afghanistan and draws upon exclusive interviews with serving officers in assessing the ability of the major intelligence agencies to combat the threat of twenty first century terrorism

Marine Corps University Journal: Volume 2, Number 1 , British Spies and Irish Rebels Paul McMahon, 2008 One of the Irish Times Books of the Year 2008 Rebellion partition and a messy peace settlement ensured that Ireland was a constant thorn in Britain's side after 1916 Britain was confronted by the bombs and bullets of militant republicans the clandestine intrigues of foreign powers and the strategic dangers of Ireland's wartime neutrality a final irrevocable step in the country's difficult transition to independence Using newly opened archives this book reveals for the first time how the British intelligence system responded to these threats It lifts the lid on the underground activities of Britain's secret agencies MI5 MI6 SIS and the Special Branch It puts secret intelligence in the context of the government's other sources of information and explores how deep rooted cultural stereotypes distorted intelligence and shaped perceptions And it shows how for decades British intelligence struggled to cope with Ireland but then rose to the challenge after 1940 largely because the Dublin government began to share its secrets The author casts light on characters long kept in the shadows IRA gunrunners Bolshevik agitators Nazi agents Irish loyalists who acted as British spies His compelling book fills a gap in the history of the British intelligence community and helps explain the twists and turns of Anglo Irish relations during a time of momentous change PAUL MCMAHON gained his PhD from Cambridge University Someone Has to Die for This Derek Molyneux, Darren Kelly, 2021-06-11 Hot on the heels of Killing at its Very Extreme Dublin October 1917 November 1920 Someone Has to Die for This Dublin November 1920 July 1921 wrenches the reader into the final frenetic months of Dublin's War of Independence in uncompromising unflinching and unprecedented detail The reader will follow in the footsteps of IRA assassination units on Bloody Sunday witness the hellish conditions in Croke Park taste the gripping tension that stalked the city as intelligence services battled it out over the winter while equally clandestine peace feelers were set in play The pressure ratchets up in 1921 as surging IRA Active Service Units take the fight to the Auxiliaries police and military in Dublin Swathes of the country erupt into violent attacks and barbarous reprisals Killings escalate in daily ambushes Prison escapes are vividly detailed as are the Mountjoy hangings Shuttle diplomacy intensifies as a settlement is desperately sought but fault lines develop among the Republican leadership Street battles paralyse the city with civilians bearing a brutal burden the IRA relentlessly presses on The devastating Custom House attack precedes the war's ferocious final weeks culminating in a near bloodbath that almost scuppered the truce Experience these breathtaking events through the eyes of their participants This is an unforgettable story its style providing long overdue justice Famous People Around The World.
