

Training

VS

Development

- Is a learning process for new employees in which they get to know about the key skills required for the job.

- Is a short-term process i.e. 3 to 6 months.

- Focuses on developing skill and knowledge for the current job.

- Has a limited scope; it is specific job oriented.

- In training, the trainees get a trainer who instructs them at the time of training.

- Many individuals collectively attend the training program.

- Is the training process for the existing employees for their all round development.

- Is a continuous process, and so it is for the long term.

- Focuses on the building knowledge, understanding and competencies for overcoming future challenges.

- Is career oriented and hence its scope is comparatively wider than training.

- In contrast to development, in which the manager self-directs himself for the future assignments.

- Is a self-assessment procedure, and hence, one person himself is responsible for one's development.

book thus makes a significant contribution to studies of empire art and environment as well as to histories of Indonesia and Europe Surveying a rich visual culture developed over a period of some 350 years of Dutch colonial engagement with Indonesia Susie Protschky demonstrates how views of the archipelago's environment were far from simple topographical souvenirs Rather this book reveals how images of the tropics visually articulated colonial attempts to legitimize and historicize what were in fact continually changing and contested claims to Dutch territorial sovereignty in the Indies Further colonial images of nature were routinely inflected with diverse cultural preoccupations among them the constitution of gender class and racial boundaries in Indies society the tenor of sexual mores in the tropics and the political role of religion in the archipelago Landscape art thus indexed colonial views on a range of pressing social and political concerns
