Pursuing History Ralph Hanna, 1996 This volume argues through a series of selected local studies for the importance of textual criticism as a fundamental act of historical interpretation and recovery pointing out the need for attention to the physical bearers of our knowledge of the English Middle Ages the books themselves and the ignored and alienating features of manuscript culture The book begins with three essays that seek to problematize medieval book production to show the procedure as more a fluid and emergent than a foreplanned process The following two essays provide theoretical statements about the textual uses of manuscripts between 1985 and 1987 The volumes have been combined into a single volume without any editorial changes to provide a manageable and affordable edition of a magisterial work The remarkable breadth of Erasmus contacts throughout his life is reflected in this unique volume Differing substantially from the national biographical dictionaries that restrict themselves to major figures Contemporaries of Erasmus combines the famous with the obscure popes and politicians artists and poets knights and theologians covering every individual mentioned whose death occurred after the year 1450 Well known figures include Martin Luther King Henry VIII Machiavelli Popes Nicholas V and Peter IV and Emperor Charles V Dipping into the pages of this fully illustrated volume will intrigue and delight the casual reader but the combined volume will also be an indispensable tool for those who have searched in vain for a biographical dictionary of the Renaissance and the Reformation

Texts and Territories Hülya Taflı Düzgün,2018-07-27 The writing of a literary text is as a retrospective explanation of what is happening in the present including social cultural religious and political events and is a deliberate re creation in actual practice The impact of immediate contemporary concerns places a literary text at least partly outside the author s control The author responds to a given context of historical and cultural incident that limits his freedom to invent adapt or explain Of these contemporary concerns the literary text is concerned first with how cultural practices and cultural changes helped to create it and second with what happens when specific historical events appear to model themselves on narrative structures and how those events can be given a conscious boost by narrative authors or patrons to make the parallels even closer History turns into literary narrative or literary narrative turns into history therefore literature and history live in each other s pockets The medieval texts that straddle the borderland between literature and history what has been called a medieval fashion for pseudo history have been repeatedly commented on over the years However the broader implications of this phenomenon for the modern understanding of medieval concepts of the past and historiography have been under explored This volume engages with the history and the literary narrative in Medieval England through a variety of approaches to an interdisciplinary array of texts ranging from Latin Old French Anglo Norman to Middle English between the eleventh and fifteenth centuries Tradition and Innovation in Old English Metre Rachel A.
