The Textual Society Edwina Taborsky,1997-01-01 Edwina Taborsky moves semiotics away from being a descriptive tool within the humanities and uses its powers of analysis on the organic and social nature of cognition Catullus, Cicero, and a Society of Patrons Sarah Culpepper Stroup,2010-04-29 This is a study of the emergence development and florescence of a distinctly late Republican socio textual culture as recorded in the writings of this period s two most influential authors Catullus and Cicero It reveals a multi faceted textual rather than more traditionally defined literary world that both defines the intellectual life of the late Republic and lays the foundations for those authors of the Principate and Empire who identified this period as their literary source and inspiration By first questioning and then rejecting the traditional polarisation of Catullus and Cicero and by broadening the scope of late Republican socio literary studies to include intersections of language social practice and textual materiality this book presents a fresh picture of both the socio textual world of the late Republic and the primary authors through whom this world would gain renown Proceedings of the Nineteenth Annual Conference of the Cognitive Science Society Michael G. Shafto,Pat Langley,1997 This volume features the complete text of the material presented at the Nineteenth Annual Conference of the Cognitive Science Society Papers have been loosely grouped by topic and an author index is provided in the back As in previous years the symposium included an interesting mixture of papers on many topics from researchers with diverse backgrounds and different goals presenting a multifaceted view of cognitive science In hopes of facilitating searches of this work an electronic index on the Internet s World Wide Web is provided Titles authors and summaries of all the papers published here have been placed in an online database which may be freely searched by anyone You can reach the web site at www.csli.stanford.edu/cogsci97
