Textual Sources for the Study of Islam Andrew Rippin, Jan Knappert, 1990 Textual Sources for the Study of Islam
Andrew Rippin, Jan Knappert, 1990-10-15 This collection is distinguished by its wide range and the care which has clearly gone into the selection of texts for inclusion Attention has understandably been focused on what might be called the religious aspects of Islam such as scripture theology sects law ritual and mysticism but within those limits the texts chosen are marked by substantially of content by geographical chronological and social diversity and by an intelligent use of less well known authors An excellent starting point for a systematic and analytical examination of Islam G R Hawting Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies The Transmission and Dynamics of the Textual Sources of Islam Nicolet Boekhoff-van der Voort, Kees Versteegh, Joas Wagemakers, 2011-09-05 For many Muslims the textual sources of Islam provide the guiding principles on which they base their beliefs These texts have also been studied by Western scholars of Islam for centuries Most of their work has focussed on the historicity of the texts often at the expense of the study of Muslims highly diverse interpretation and application of these sources in everyday life This volume provides new insights into the transmission of these sources primarily the Qur n and the ad th and combines this with the dynamics of these scriptures by paying close attention to how believers in the Muslim world as well as the West interpret and apply them As such this volume provides a fascinating overview of how the sources of Islam are dated debated and negotiated Contributors include Nicolet Boekhoff van der Voort Gregor Schoeler Maribel Fierro Fred Leemhuis Claude Gilliot Andreas G rke Jens Scheiner Michael Lecker Maher Jarrar Gerard Wieggers Uri Rubin Kees Versteegh Joas Wagemakers Herbert Berg Abdulkader Tayob Roel Meijer Martijn de Koning Carmen Becker and Ulrike Mitter Keyguide to Information Sources on World Religions Jean Holm, 1991 The main aim of this book is to indicate the nature and range of reference material available for the study of world religions A broad interpretation of world religions has been adopted and coverage includes the Baha i faith Buddhism Christianity Confucianism Hinduism Islam Jainism Judaism Shinto Sikhism Taoism and Zoroastrianism as well as cross cultural studies and inter faith dialogue Following the basic pattern of the Keyguides series the work is divided into three sections an overview of the subject and available literature is followed by an annotated bibliography of over 1000 entries and an international directory of organizations International Journal of Islamic and Arabic Studies ,1991 Islamic Studies Richard C. Martin, 1996 This text seeks to make the academic study of religion a more prominent consideration in the study of Islam than it has been in the past Islamic Studies A History of Religions Approach Second Edition represents a substantial revision that has been both updated to reflect IslamUs rise in North America and the international media and refocused to situate the study of Islam within the comparative study of religions The Quarterly Index Islamicus ,1987 Islamic Culture Marmaduke William Pickthall, Muhammad Asad, 1991 Manuscripta Orientalia ,1995 An Introduction to Islam Frederick Mathewson Denny, 2006 The author s extensive field work experience and scholarship combined with his engaging writing style and passion for the subject sets this text apart An Introduction to Islam Third Edition provides students with a thorough and unified topical introduction to the global religious community of Islam It places Islam within a cultural political social and religious context and examines its connections with Judeo Christian morals The text s integration of the doctrinal and devotional elements of Islam enables students to see how Muslims think and live engendering understanding and breaking down stereotypes An Introduction to Islam Third Edition also reviews pre Islamic history so students can see how Islam developed historically

The Muslim World Book Review ,1988 Islamic Studies ,2006 Islam in Context Peter G. Riddell,Peter Cotterell,2003-07 Go behind recent crises and discover a way forward with this description of Islam s history basic structure and beliefs and divisions

Islam Jamal J. Elias,1999 Islam is a concise and readable survey of the history of Islam from the birth of Muhammad in the seventh century Arabia to the differing situations of Muslims throughout today s world Focusing particularly on the modern period it looks at the ways in which this rapidly growing religion is meeting the challenges of the modern world

Understanding Islam and Muslim Traditions Tanya Gulevich,2004 An introduction to the religious practices celebrations festivals observances beliefs folklore customs and calendar system of the world s muslim communities including an overview of islamic history and geography

Islam Solomon Alexander Nigosian,2004 This compact introduction to Islam encapsulates the essential aspects of Islam as a living religion and social force The book is organized around seven topics the life of Muhammad Islamic political development and territorial expansion the important groupings of Islamic believers Sunni Shi ite and Sufi the Qur an the Holy Book of Islam Sunnah Hadith the record of the Prophet s actions and sayings and Shari ah the compilation of Islamic law the five Articles of Faith and the so called Five Pillars of Islam that govern faith and action and other binding religious observances and festivals The presentation of these seven aspects of Islam strikes a balance between fact tradition current interpretation and commentary

S A Nigosian underscores two fundamental points that to understand Islam properly it is necessary to see it as a major faith tradition with Muhammad as the last of a series of messengers sent by God and that to grasp the spirit of Islam one must recognize its emphasis on an uncompromising monotheism with strict adherence to certain social political and religious practices as taught by the Prophet and elaborated by tradition

Angels and Demons Peter G. Riddell,Beverly Smith Riddell,2007 Spirit beings are fascinating They can be wicked good of dual nature or non existent They announce accompany heal injure sway charm fight tempt and judge They can bring us closer to or distract us from God In this volume the particular focus is on how angelic and demonic concepts are overtly expressed or are more obliquely reflected in different religions Specific themes covered include spiritual warfare spirit beings and the origin of evil angelic and demonic roles human suffering and spiritual powers use of talismans sacred texts and the practical outworking of beliefs The contributors all Christian scholars mostly write as detached observers of the religious traditions they are describing Nevertheless they do not shy away from taking a stand on controversial issues Here you will find a great diversity of thought some striking thematic similarities and a fascinating view of worlds far removed from our usual experience The contributors are Allen Anderson Andy Bannister Ruth Bradby Keith Ferdinando Theodore Gabriel Chris Gnanakan Willam Kay Bill Musk Martin Parsons Chris Partridge Peter Riddell Nigel Scotland and Amy Summers Minette Studia Islamica ,2004 Sources of Western Society Since 1300 Amy R. Caldwell,John Beeler,Charles Clark,2010-10-13 This primary source collection provides a diverse selection of sources to accompany each chapter of A History of Western Society Tenth Edition Each chapter contains at least five sources that present history from the viewpoints of well known and ordinary individuals alike Now with 19 visual sources and 30% more documents this edition offers great breadth and depth in its sources To foster lively comparative debates a new Viewpoints feature in each chapter highlights two or three documents that address the same topic from different perspectives Waterstone's Guide to Books ,1989
