Kanar,2001-09-10 The Confident Writer functions simultaneously as a rhetoric with readings a research guide and a handbook Students receive extensive writing practice throughout the text in order to become confident writers capable of making effective choices during the writing process Computer and Internet based writing activities appear throughout the text to strengthen students writing and research skills

The Confident Writing Teacher Shelley Barker,2013 If you are currently a member of the teaching profession it is very likely that you were never taught to write Shocked Think about it Certainly we wrote but what did writing instruction look like when you were a kid Do you remember receiving any I do not remember being taught to write My language arts teachers focused on those things that could be measured and counted as right or wrong like parsing sentences identifying linking verbs and making sure those darned participles didn't dangle If Shelley Barker's description rings true then you know that students need more than corrections to thrive as writers In this practical and uplifting guide Shelley invites you into her classroom and shares guidance for nurturing yourself as a writer strategies for building a community of writers in your classroom tools for building lessons and addressing areas of student need models of feedback that motivates writers rubrics that make assessment valuable to students Take what you need from your writing past the positive experiences the times when you felt successful the times when writing made sense to you and leave the rest the red ink the negative or empty comments the references to your spelling and penmanship Shelley says We need to produce confident writers who when faced with difficult writing tasks may not know how to begin but trust that they have the skills and perseverance to find the way
