Government Information, Justice, and Agriculture Subcommittee, 1985 The Bonds of Freedom Jake Subryan Richards, 2025-09-02 The story of the long fight for freedom of African captives rescued from the illegal slave trade only to be forced back into bondage The Bonds of Freedom tells the forgotten story of people seized from slave ships by maritime patrols liberated then forced into bonded labor between 1807 and 1880 Using extensive archival research from Sierra Leone South Africa Brazil Cuba the United Kingdom and the United States historian Jake Subryan Richards uncovers the contrasting ideas and practices of authoritarianism and freedom that empires and liberated Africans developed during the protracted end of the illegal slave trade Following the Africans journeys from enslavement to liberation Richards recounts their capture and embarkation on ships that participated in the vast slave trade to Brazil and Cuba the maritime seizure of those ships and the adjudication that assigned freed captives to bonded labor The captives fought against their bondage as state agents limited their freedom of choice and movement The liberated Africans story shows that far from following a straightforward path to freedom these men and women navigated anti slave trade laws that both subjected them to authoritarian control and provided a domain for them to create their own visions of freedom Through meticulous research and engaging narrative Richards sheds light on their legal battles community building efforts and ongoing quest for justice and autonomy in the face of enduring challenges Journal of the House of Representatives of the United States United States.
