Youssef Chahine:

Youssef Chahine Ibrahim Fawal,2019-07-25 A discussion of the frequently controversial film maker Youssef Chahine The book aims to illuminate Chahine s work in the context of modern Egyptian culture and its tumultuous post war history and how such films as Cairo Station 1958 The Earth 1959 and The Sparrow 1973 dramatized the dilemmas of ordinary Egyptians He also argues that Chahine s intensely autobiographical trilogy Alexandria Why 1978 An Egyptian Story 1985 and Alexandria More and More 1989 spoke to the concerns of the broader Egyptian intelligentsia amongst whom he has earned the reputation of being the poet and thinker of modern Arab cinema The final analysis of the book argues that Chahine s work stands comparison with directors such as Fellini Bergman Kurosawa or Sembene but also emphatically draws strength from its links with one of the most vibrant popular cinemas of the world and from the roots and traditions of popular Arabic culture

The Arab National Project in Youssef Chahine's Cinema Malek Khouri,2026-03-03 A rigorous examination of the work of Egypt s best known filmmaker In a major addition to the academic library on the cinema of Youssef Chahine and on Arab and Egyptian cinema in general Malek Khouri here presents the most comprehensive and up to date study on Chahine s work to appear since his death in 2008 The methodological approach of the book and more precisely the discussion of the theme of Arab national unity from a post colonial point of view emphasizes the ideological underpinnings of this Egyptian director s themes as well as his esthetics The author focuses on the interaction between Chahine s personal and political preoccupations his eclectic cinematic style and his devotion to connecting with a wide audience of filmgoers The Arab National Project in Youssef Chahine s Cinema is an important contribution to original scholarship in the fields of cultural studies sociology of film and history of cinema and will be of great interest to scholars students and cinema lovers all over the world

Third World Film Making and the West Roy Armes,1987-07-29 This volume is the first fully comprehensive account of film production in the Third World Although they are usually ignored or marginalized in histories of world cinema Third World countries now produce well over half of the world s films Roy Armes sets out initially to place this huge output in a wider context examining the forces of tradition and colonialism that have shaped the Third World defined as those countries that have emerged from Western control but have not fully developed their economic potential or rejected the capitalist system in favor of some socialist alternative He then considers the paradoxes of social structure and cultural life in the post independence world where even such basic concepts as nation national culture and language are problematic The first experience of cinema for such countries has invariably been that of imported Western films which created the audience and in most cases still dominate the market today Thus Third World film makers have had to assert their identity against formidable outside pressures The later sections of the book look at their output from a number of angles in terms of the stages of overall growth and corresponding stages of cinematic development from the point of view of regional evolution in Asia Africa and Latin America and through a detailed examination of the work of some of the Third World s most striking film innovators In addition to charting the broad outlines of filmic developments too little known in Europe and the United States the book calls into question many of the assumptions that shape conventional film history It stresses the role of distribution in defining and limiting production queries simplistic notions of independent national cinemas and points to the need to take social and economic factors into account when considering authorship in cinema Above all the book celebrates the achievements of a mass of largely unknown film makers who in difficult circumstances have distinctively expanded our definitions of the art of cinema Roy Armes who lives in London has written nine books on film his most recent being French Cinema He spent more than three years researching this volume

Legal Pluralism in the Arab World Badouin

Dupret, Maurits Berger, Laila Al-Zwaini, 2023-03-20 Legal pluralism denotes both the multiple social fields which produce partially interacting norms and the state's recognition of the many sources of law which constitute its legislation It advocates a break from traditional legal theory in favour of describing the law from a more sociological and anthropological perspective The theory of legal pluralism proves a useful tool offering a challenging avenue for the examination of socio legal activities Too often however the literature on legal pluralism has failed to place sufficient emphasis on its fundamental theoretical questions The result of a seminar held in Cairo in December 1996 with contributions by sociologists anthropologists political scientists legal theoreticians and practising lawyers Legal Pluralism in the Arab World represents the first comprehensive examination of this phenomenon This collection of essays attempts to define the notion of legal pluralism from a sociological anthropological and theoretical perspective and highlights its connection with particular Arab societies and countries The work's unique features include a preface by John Griffiths one of the most significant voices in the formulation of the theory of legal pluralism a broad range of case studies demonstrating the diversity in formulations of the theory and a wide variety of approaches to the subject matter Legal Pluralism in the Arab World is the only work in existence which addresses the concept of legal pluralism in this particular part of the world in such a systematic manner These essays significantly enrich the current canon on legal pluralism and offer the reader a unique example of its richness and usefulness

Iran Hamid

Dabashi, 2016-10-05 In this unprecedented book Hamid Dabashi provides a provocative account of Iran in its current resurrection as a mighty regional power Through a careful study of contemporary Iranian history in its political literary and artistic dimensions Dabashi decouples the idea of Iran from its colonial linkage to the cliché notion of the nation state and then demonstrates how an aesthetic intuition of transcendence has enabled it to be re-conceived as a powerful nation This rebirth has allowed for repressed political and cultural forces to surface redefining the nation's future beyond its fictive postcolonial borders and autonomous from the state apparatus that wishes but fails to rule it Iran's sovereignty Dabashi argues is inaugurated through an active and open-ended self-awareness of the nation's history and recent political and aesthetic instantiations as it has been sustained by successive waves of revolutionary prose poetry and visual and performing arts performed categorically against the censorial will of the state

Arab Nationalism Peter Wien, 2017-02-10 This book sheds

light on cultural expressions of Arab Nationalism and the contradictory meanings often attached to it It presents nationalism as an experienceable set of identity markers in stories visual culture narratives of memory and struggles with ideology Using case studies the book transcends a conventional history that reduces nationalism in the Arab lands to a pattern of political rise and decline It suggests Arabs have constructed an identifiable shared national culture and it critically dissects conceptions about Arab nationalism as an easily graspable secular and authoritarian ideology modelled on Western ideas and visions of modernity
