Sculptural Materiality in the Age of Conceptualism MarinR. Sullivan, 2017-07-05 Sculptural Materiality in the Age of Conceptualism is structured around four distinct but interrelated projects initially realized in Italy between 1966 and 1972 Yayoi Kusama's Narcissus Garden Michelangelo Pistoletto's Newspaper Sphere Sfera di giornali Robert Smithson's Asphalt Rundown and Joseph Beuys's Arena These works all utilized non traditional materials collaborative patronage models and alternative modes of display to create a spatially and temporally dispersed arena of matter and action with photography serving as a connective material thread within the sculpture it reflects While created by major artists of the postwar period these particular projects have yet to receive substantive art historical analysis especially from a sculptural perspective Here they anchor a transnational narrative in which sculpture emerged as a node a center of transaction comprising multiple material phenomenon including objects images and actors When seen as entangled polymorphous entities these works suggest that the charge of sculpture in the late postwar period came from its concurrent existence as both three dimensional phenomena and photographic image in the interchanges among the materials that continue to activate and alter the constitution of sculpture within the contemporary sphere

Yves Klein USA Rotraut Klein-Moquay, Robert Pincus-Witten, Yves Klein, 2009 This book produced in collaboration with the Yves Klein Archives is the first of its kind to illustrate the relationship between Yves Klein one of the most important artists of the postwar period and the United States of America a relationship of mutual fascination and influence Photos letters and notes many of which are previously unpublished bear witness to the ties that Yves Klein forged with the USA through his working life Important figures of the American art scene Leo Castelli Robert Rauschenberg Jasper Johns Frank Stella Marcel Duchamp all play a part in the story as does President Eisenhower This exceptional album opens with an interview with Rotraut Klein Moquay who describes her trip to the USA with Yves Klein in 1961 and is followed by the artist's reflections on his own work A further perspective is provided by the American art critic Robert Pincus Witten who worked for the New York art dealer Leo Castelli during this time This book covers a fascinating period in the history of 20th century art and features several unabridged documents from the archives including the Chelsea Hotel Manifesto "Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956-1971"

Rosemary O'Neill, 2017-07-05 The Riviera in the 1950s and 1960s was culturally rich with modernist icons such as Matisse and Picasso in residence but also a burgeoning tourist culture that established the Côte d'Azur as a center of indigenous artists associated with Nouveau Réalisme Fluxus and Supports Surfaces emerged under the mantle of the Ecole de Nice Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications generated during the period from museum archives collections in the region and privately owned archives this study integrates material published in monographic studies of individuals and art movements to offer the first in depth study of this important movement in twentieth century art The author situates the work of the Ecole de Nice within the broader social currents that are so important in contextualizing this phenomenon within this internal region of France and underscores why this work was so significant at this historical moment within the context of the broader European art scene and contemporary American art with which it shared affinities Despite their stylistic differences and associations with groups that are generally considered distinct O'Neill discloses that these artists shared conceptual affinities theatrical modes of presentation based on appropriation use of the ready made and a determination to counter style driven painting associated with the postwar Ecole de Paris Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera 1956-1971 suggests that the emergence of an Ecole de Nice internally eroded the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this moment of French decentralization efforts and that these artists fostered a model of aesthetic pluralism that remained locally distinct yet fully engaged with international vanguard trends of the 1960s Yves Klein, 1928-1962, 1982 Yves Klein

Nuit Banai, 2014-06-15 Denounced as a charlatan and feted as a mystic French artist Yves Klein 1928-62 scandalized the art world with his enthusiastic embrace of postwar mass culture and his exploitation of controversial publicity tactics Today we know Yves Klein not only as one of the most radical artists of the postwar period but also as an iconic role model for contemporary practices he reinvented abstract painting conceived new horizons for performance art and was a trailblazer in the realm of land body and conceptual art In this new critical biography Nuit Banai examines the relationship between Klein's brief life and his wide repertoire of artistic practices While surveying the artist's life Banai establishes that Klein's brilliance was above all performative revealing that he created and inhabited myriad public identities bourgeois judo expert painter avant garde artist collaborator politician fascist and showman among others With each persona Banai shows Klein invented new ways to communicate his paradoxical message of spiritual enlightenment and Dada iconoclasm to a rapt and unsuspecting audience Illuminating the many facets of Klein's influential artistic career Yves Klein is an invaluable introduction to the inventor of the inimitable International Klein Blue Yves Klein Yves Klein, 1973
