Universal Cyclopaedia and Atlas, 1908      The Comic Body in Ancient Greek Theatre and Art, 440-320 BCE Alexa

Piqueux, 2022-06-16 Using both textual and iconographic sources this richly illustrated book examines the representations of the body in Greek Old and Middle Comedy how it was staged perceived and imagined particularly in Athens Magna Graecia and Sicily The study also aims to refine knowledge of the various connections between Attic comedy and comic vases from South Italy and Sicily the so called phlyax vases After introducing comic texts and comedy related vase paintings in the regional contexts The Comic Body in Ancient Greek Theatre and Art 440 320 BCE considers the generic features of the comic body characterized as it is by a specific ugliness and a constant motion It also explores how costumes masks padding phallus clothing accessories and gestures contribute to the characters visual identity in relation with speech it analyzes the cultural social aesthetic and theatrical conventions by which spectators decipher the body This study thus leads to a re examination of the modalities of comic mimesis in particular when addressing sexual codes in cross dressing scenes which reveal the artifice of the fictional body It also sheds light on how comic poets make use of the scenic or imaginary representations of the bodies of those who are targets of political social or intellectual satire There is a particular emphasis on body movements where the book not only deals with body language and the dramatic function of comic gesture but also with how words confer a kind of poetic and unreal motion to the body      Historical Pollution Francesco Centonze, Stefano Manacorda, 2017-08-05

This volume examines legal matters regarding the prevention and fighting of historical pollution caused by industrial emissions Historical pollution refers to the long term or delayed onset effects of environmental crimes such as groundwater or soil pollution Historical Pollution presents and compares national legal approaches including the most interesting and effective mechanisms for managing environmental problems in relation with historical pollution It features interdisciplinary and international comparisons of traditional and alternative justice mechanisms This book will be of interest to researchers in criminology and criminal justice and related areas such as politics law and economics those in the public and private sectors dealing with environmental protection including international institutions corporations specialized national agencies those involved in the criminal justice system and policymakers      The New Cambridge Medieval History: Volume 6, C.1300-c.1415

Rosamond McKitterick,1995 The sixth volume of The New Cambridge Medieval History covers the fourteenth century a period dominated by plague other natural disasters and war which brought to an end three centuries of economic growth and cultural expansion in Christian Europe but one which also saw important developments in government religious and intellectual life and new cultural and artistic patterns Part I sets the scene by discussion of general themes in the theory and practice of government religion social and economic history and culture Part II deals with the individual histories of the states of western Europe Part III with that of the Church at the time of the Avignon papacy and the Great Schism and Part IV with eastern and northern Europe Byzantium and the early Ottomans giving particular attention to the social and economic relations with westerners and those of other civilisations in the Mediterranean
