Tiny Paper Airplanes 2005:

Irish Children's Literature and Culture Keith O'Sullivan, Valerie Coghlan, 2011-03-17 Irish Children's Literature and Culture looks critically at Irish writing for children from the 1980s to the present examining the work of many writers and illustrators and engaging with major genres forms and issues including the gothic the speculative picturebooks ethnicity and globalization It contextualizes modern Irish children's literature in relation to Irish mythology and earlier writings as well as in relation to Irish writing for adults thereby demonstrating the complexity of this fascinating area What constitutes a national literature is rarely straightforward and it is especially complex when discussing writing for young people in an Irish context Until recently there was only a slight body of work that could be classified as Irish children's literature in comparison with Ireland's contribution to adult literature in the twentieth century The contributors to the volume examine a range of texts in relation to contemporary literary and cultural theory and children's literature internationally raising provocative questions about the future of the topic Irish Children's Literature and Culture is essential reading for those interested in Irish literature culture sociology childhood and children's literature Valerie Coghlan Church of Ireland College of Education Dublin is a librarian and lecturer She is a former co editor of Bookbird An International Journal of Children's Literature She has published widely on Irish children's literature and co edited several books on the topic She is a former board member of the IRSCLE and a founder member of the Irish Society for the Study of Children's Literature Children's Books Ireland and IBBY Ireland Keith O'Sullivan lectures in English at the Church of Ireland College of Education Dublin He is a founder member of the Irish Society for the Study of Children's Literature a former member of the board of directors of Children's Books Ireland and past chair of the Children's Books Ireland Bisto Book of the Year Awards He has published on the works of Philip Pullman and Emily Brontë

Screening the Red Army Faction Christina Gerhardt, 2018-07-12 Screening the Red Army Faction Historical and Cultural Memory explores representations of the Red Army Faction RAF in print media film and art locating an analysis of these texts in the historical and political context of unfolding events In this way the book contributes both a new history and a new cultural history of post fascist era West Germany that grapples with the fledgling republic's most pivotal debates about the nature of democracy and authority about violence its motivations and regulation and about its cultural afterlife Looking back at the history of representations of the RAF in various media this book considers how our understanding of the Cold War era of the long sixties and of the RAF is created and re created through cultural texts
