William Plomer,Laurens Van der Post,1965 Leonard and Virginia Woolf, The Hogarth Press and the Networks of Modernism Helen Southworth,2012-05-08 This multi authored volume focuses on Leonard and Virginia Woolf s Hogarth Press 1917 1941 Scholars from the UK and the US use previously unpublished archival materials and new methodological frameworks to explore the relationships forged by the Woolfs Turbott Wolfe William Plomer (Schriftsteller),1925 The South African Novel in English Kenneth Parker,1978-06-17 Voices of Justice and Reason Geoffrey V. Davis,2003 Over the past fifty years transformations of great moment have taken place in South Africa Apartheid and the subsequent transition to a democratic non racial society in particular have exercised a profound effect on the practice of literature This study traces the development of literature under apartheid then seeks to identify the ways in which writers and theatre practitioners are now facing the challenges of a new social order The main focus is on the work of black writers prime among them Matsemela Manaka Mtutuzeli Matshoba and Richard Rive who as politically committed members of the oppressed majority bore witness to the black experience through their writing Despite the draconian censorship system they were able to address the social problems caused by racial discrimination in all areas of life particularly through forced removals the migrant labour system and the creation of the homelands Their writing may be read both as a comprehensive record of everyday life under apartheid and as an alternative cultural history of South Africa Particular attention is paid to theatre as a barometer of social change in South Africa The concluding chapters consider how in the current period of transition writers and arts institutions have set about reassessing their priorities redefining their function and seeking new aesthetic directions in taking up the challenge of imagining a new society Literary Community-Making Roger D. Sell,2012-06-12 The writing and reading of so called literary texts can be seen as processes which are genuinely communicational They lead that is to say to the growth of communities within which individuals acknowledge not only each other s similarities but differences as well In this new book Roger D Sell and his colleagues apply the communicational perspective to the past four centuries of literary activity in English Paying detailed attention to texts both canonical and non canonical by Amelia Lanyer Thomas Coryate John Boys Pope Coleridge Arnold Kipling William Plomer Auden Walter Macken Robert Kroetsch Rudy Wiebe and Lyn Hejinian the book shows how the communicational issues of addressivity commonality dialogicality and ethics have arisen in widely different historical contexts At a metascholarly level it suggests that the communicational criticism of
