Widows Might:

The Widows' Might Vivian Bruce Conger, 2009-03-01 In early American society one's identity was determined in large part by gender. The ways in which men and women engaged with their communities were generally not equal; married women fell under the legal control of their husbands who handled all negotiations with the outside world as well as many domestic interactions. The death of a husband enabled women to transcend this strict gender divide. Yet as a widow, a woman occupied a third, liminal gender in early America, performing an unusual mix of male and female roles in both public and private life. With shrewd analysis of widows' wills as well as prescriptive literature, court appearances, newspaper advertisements, and letters, The Widows' Might explores how widows were portrayed in early American culture and how widows themselves responded to their unique role. Using a comparative approach, Vivian Bruce Conger deftly analyzes how widows in colonial Massachusetts, South Carolina, and Maryland navigated their domestic, legal, economic, and community roles in early American society.

The Widow's Might Jan Thompson, 2007-06 Jan Thompson takes you with her through the first year of widowhood. Honest and real, from the agony of uselessness to the newness of purpose, widows will know that they are not alone. Families, friends, and pastors will better understand how to relate and minister to the widow. When she felt she would suffocate in her anguish, Jan felt the breath of the Holy Spirit. When she reached out for her husband, it was God who touched her. The widow brings before her Lord all that she has and places it on the altar. God blesses her mite into a strength she could not have imagined and gives her The Widow's Might to live once again abundantly in victory and grace.

The Widow's Might Cherie J. Drew, 2008-07 Dr. Cherie J. Drew, Twice Widowed but Thriving, When we learn the Power of God's Might, nothing can destroy us: not death, devastation, destruction, desertion, or divorce. God uses the lives of biblical widows to instruct us in His ability to deliver us. While discussing these godly women, she shares the pain and victory relating to the deaths of her late husbands. Her prayer and hope is that you will gain strength and grow in the Lord who is the Widow's Might. Jesus is your strength, and after all, it's all about Him. Cherie J. Drew is married to Rev. Daryl L. Drew, Pastor of the New Vine Baptist Church, Lynchburg, VA. She is a mother and grandmother. Currently, she serves as a Financial Consultant for churches and non-profit organizations. She has a unique ability to bridge the communication gap between financial institutions and churches. Dr. Drew also brings thirty-three years of expertise to the speaking and financial worlds as a presenter for the Credit Union National Association's Certified Financial Planning School and a host of Church and Civic Organizations. Dr. Drew obtained a Doctorate of Ministry from the College of Church Administration, Minnesota Graduate School of Theology in St. Paul, Minnesota. She holds the lifetime designation of SWCMS Southwest CUNA Management School for her accomplishment as a graduate of the challenging Strategic Management School. Her work has won her the prestigious Credit Union National Association's Founders Club Award.

The Widows' Might Darlyn Turner, 2021-05-19 THE WIDOWS MIGHT will stir up the voices, strength, and the authority of the widows and those that love them. Widowhood brings an authority and power that can only be produced from death Just like in salvation there is a life ZOE THAT can only come through the conduit of death John 12 24 says except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die it abideth alone but if it die it bringeth forth much fruit There is much fruit that comes after death We see throughout scripture particularly in the new testament that the widow was commended for her faithfulness Anna her giving Widow with the might and her tenacity luke 18 1 8 There is a tenacity a proper perspective on life things and an attitude of nothing else to lose that can empower a widow that decides to walk in their God ordained season Even when it looks as if everything has fallen apart God establishes the border of the widow God promises to be the judge jury and the witness on behalf of the widow Out of death there will be life Widows arise
