Hannah Howell

Wild Conquest:

Wild Conquest Hannah Howell, 2009-11 Pleasance Dunstan is used to silently bearing the cruelties put upon her by her thoughtless family But nothing can prepare her for the greatest indignity of all being sold into servitude to a man as wild as Tearlach O Duine His untamed ways are whispered of throughout town and he has set his sights on Pleasance to be more than his servant He will have her in his bed Pleasance could escape this fate with a word but her fierce pride keeps her silent Instead she follows her new master to the rough lands where he has made a home and finds a world beyond any she has ever known a world of desire For though he is her captor only Tearlach can show her how freeing true passion can be and while her servitude to him will one day end nothing can stop the binding of their hearts Page 4 of cover

Approaches to the African Novel Charles E. Nnolim, 2010 This Third Edition of Approaches to the African Novel is a child of necessity Because of the unfortunate death of the publisher of Saros International who issued the First Edition and high demand this third enlarged edition has become imperative Three new essays all previously published are added two expectedly on Achebe the father of the African novel and one on Mongp Beti s Mission to Kala which was partially anthologised in Contemporary Literary Criticism Volume 27 1984 Achebe s Things Fall Apart as an Igbo national epic has evoked a spate of reactions from critics of African literature especially the troika Chinweizu et al in Toward the Decolonization of African Literature It was also anthologised in Modern Black Literature edited by S Okechukwu Menu 1971 The essay on Arrow of God whose structure and meaning has been largely avoided by other critics is included here for further airing For gender balance as the previous volume contained no essays on women writers an essay on Flora Nwapa has been added Since the novels discussed in this volume exclusively are on the African literature south of the Sahara the last essay on Peter Abrahams comes in to round out this collection of essays with a study of a south African writer for geographical balance complexities of black existence and of intellectual and cultural life in the twentieth century The first is the exploration of some of the centenarians key texts and cultural projects that shaped their legacies In doing so the volume contributors trace a number of divergent intellectual and aesthetic lineages in their works and organisational activities The second aim is a consideration of the ways in which these foundational writers legacies continue to resonate today confirming their status as crucial contributors to modern African and diasporic black arts and letters
