Rape and Representation Lynn A. Higgins,1993-07-15 Rape does not have to happen The fact that it does and in the United States a rape is reported every six minutes indicates that we live in a rape prone culture where rape or the threat of rape functions as a tool for enforcing sexual difference and hierarchy Rape and Representation explores how cultural forms construct and reenforce social attitudes and behaviors that perpetuate sexual violence The essays proceed from the observation that literature not only reflects but also contributes to what a society believes about itself Fourteen essays by authors in the fields of English American and African American German African Brazilian Classical and French literatures and film present a wide range of texts from different historical periods and cultures Contributors demythologize patriarchal representation in literature and art in order to show how it makes rape seem natural and inevitable Contributors include the editors John J Winkler Patricia Klindiest Joplin Susan Winnett Ellen Rooney Copp lia Kahn Eileen Julien Marta Peixoto Kathryn Gravdal Carla Freccero Nellie V McKay Nancy A Jones and Froma I Zeitlin Their work raises pressing and often difficult questions for feminist criticism

Flight of a Butterfly Bryan B. Kagan,2001-12-21 The butterfly goes through many changes and stages in its life cycle Its fragile existence is short lived but in one brief season of flight it tickles our minds with its colorful flapping wings that beautify the gardens of this world Flight of a Butterfly is a vibrant spiritual journey a solemn yet rejoiceful chronological collection of devotional poetry of one mans soul who like the butterfly grows and matures through the stages of his development Reverent and meditative these deeply sensitive and passionate poems acknowledge and emphasize the miracle of Gods love blessings and presence in our everyday existence
