Speech Acts, Mind, and Social Reality G. Grewendorf, G. Meggle, 2012-12-06 Speech Acts Mind and Social Reality these are the main topics in the work of John R Searle one of the leading philosophical figures of the present times How language is based on intentionality how intentionality in turn is to be explicated by means of distinctions discovered in Speech Act Theory and how language and intentionality are both related to social facts and institutions these are questions to be tackled in this volume The contributions result from discussions on and with John R Searle containing Searle s own latest views including his seminal ideas on Rationality in Action The collection provides a good basis for advanced seminar debates in Philosophy of Language Philosophy of Mind and Social Philosophy and will also stimulate some further research on all of the three main topics

Properties of Speech and Ideas of Reality Leslie Dewart, 1991 Reason and Reality. (Speech Delivered at Sunderland on January 3, 1920.). Sir Winston Churchill, 1920 Speech Acts Igor Ž Žagar, 1991 Reality, 1927 In the Cross of Reality Eugen Rosenstock-Huessy, 2017-09-08 This book makes the first volume of Eugen Rosenstock Huessy s Soziologie available in English for the first time since its 1956 publication in German Rosenstock Huessy argues that social philosophy has favored abstract and spatially contrived categories of social organization over temporal processes This preference for space thinking has diverted us from recognizing the power of speech and its relationship to living on the front lines of life Taking speech and the social responsibilities and reciprocities that accompany naming as the key to social reality In the Cross of Reality provides a sociological exploration of play spaces as the basis for reflexivity It also explores the spaces of activity and their correlation in war and peace to the spheres of serious life If we are to survive and flourish different qualities and reciprocal relationships must be cultivated so that we can deal with different fronts of life Arguing that modern intellectuals and their obsession with space have created a dangerously false choice between mechanical and aesthetic salvation Rosenstock Huessy clears a path so that we better appreciate our relationship between past and future in founding and in partitioning time The Cross and the Star Wayne Cristaudo, Frances Huessy, 2009 This book brings to publication three essays by Rosenstock Huessy on Nietzsche and a translation of a chapter from his Sociology clarifying the post Nietzschean approach of the new thinking The Quest of Reality A. Wyatt Tilby, 1927

Knowledge, Life and Reality George Trumbull Ladd, 1909 Introduction to Philosophy Friedrich Paulsen, Frank Thilly, 1895 The Production of Reality Jodi O'Brien, 1997 The Meaning of the Terms: 'existence' and 'reality' Alvin Thalheimer, 1920 The Justification of the Good Vladimir Sergeevich Solovyov, 1918 A Constructive Survey of Upanishadic Philosophy Ramchandra Dattatraya Ranade, 1926 Global Fragments, 2007-01-01

While the world seems to be getting ever smaller and globalization has become the ubiquitous buzz word regionalism and fragmentation also abound This might be due to the fact that far from being the alleged production of cultural homogeneity the global is constantly re-defined and altered through the local This tension pervading much of contemporary culture has an obvious special relevance for the new varieties of English and the literature published in English world-wide Postcolonial literatures exist at the interface of English as a hegemonic medium and its many national regional and local competitors that transform it in the new English literatures Thus any exploration of a globalization of cultures has to take into account the fact that culture is a complex field characterized by hybridization plurality and difference But while global or transnational cultures may allow for a new cosmopolitanism that produces ever-changing fluid identities they do not give rise to an egalitarian global village an asymmetry between centre and periphery remains largely intact albeit along new parameters The essays collected in this volume offer readings of literary theoretical and filmic texts from the postcolonial world These texts are read as attempts to articulate the global with the local from a perspective of immersion in the actual diversity of life-worlds focusing on such issues as consumption identity politics and modes of affiliation In this sense they are global fragments locally refracted figurations of an experience of world-wide interconnectedness
