Studies In Linguistic Motivation:

Studies in Linguistic Motivation Günter Radden, Klaus-Uwe Panther, 2004 How much of language is motivated Recently cognitive and functional linguists have proposed new solutions to this intriguing question The thirteen articles collected in this volume cover various aspects of motivation in grammar and in the lexicon The phenomena discussed in the contributions can be grouped into four types of motivation which along with other types are explicated in the introductory chapter ecological motivation i e motivation of a linguistic unit due to its place or ecological niche within a system genetic motivation i e motivation of present day linguistic behavior or structure due to historical factors experiential motivation i e motivation that is based on embodied experience and cognitive motivation i e motivation that is based on human knowledge and cognitive operations such as metonymy and metaphor The languages studied in some detail include Afrikaans Croatian Dutch English French German Hausa and Hungarian This volume makes a strong case for the pervasiveness of motivation in natural language It will be of interest to teachers researchers and students of linguistics especially of functional and cognitive linguistics Motivation in Language H. Cuyckens, 2003-01-01 Topics covered in this volume include extreme subjectification English tense and modals schemas and lexical blends valency and diathesis functions of the preposition kuom in Dholou and grammaticalization of postpositions in German Motivational Dynamics in Language Learning Zoltán Dörnyei, Peter D. MacIntyre, Alastair Henry, 2014-10-14 This landmark volume offers a collection of conceptual papers and empirical research studies that investigate the dynamics of language learning motivation from a complex dynamic systems perspective The contributors include some of the most well established scholars from three continents all addressing the question of how we can understand motivation if we perceive it as continuously changing and evolving rather than as a fixed learner trait The data based studies also provide useful research models and templates for graduate students and scholars in the fields of applied linguistics and SLA who are interested in engaging with the intriguing area of examining language learning in a dynamic vein Destiny and Motivation in Language Abraham Aaron Roback, 1954 Teaching and Researching: Motivation Zoltán Dörnyei, Ema Ushioda, 2013-11-26 Cultivating motivation is crucial to a language learner's success and therefore crucial for the language teacher and researcher to understand This fully revised edition of a groundbreaking work reflects the dramatic changes the field of motivation research has undergone in recent years including the impact of language globalisation and various dynamic and relational research methodologies and offers ways in which this research can be put to practical use in the classroom and in research Key new features and material A brand new chapter on current socio dynamic and complex systems perspectives New approaches to motivating students based on the L2 Motivational Self System Illustrative summaries of qualitative and mixed methods studies Samples of new self related motivation measures Providing a clear and comprehensive theory driven account of motivation Teaching and Researching Motivation examines how theoretical insights can be used in everyday teaching practice and offers practical tips The final section provides a range of useful resources including relevant websites key reference works and tried and tested example questionnaires Written in an accessible style and illustrated with concrete examples it is an invaluable resource for teachers and researchers alike

The Palgrave Handbook of Motivation for Language Learning Martin Lamb, Kata Csizér, Alastair Henry, Stephen Ryan, 2020-01-11 This handbook offers an authoritative one stop reference work for the dynamic and expanding field of language learning motivation The 32 chapters have been specially commissioned from the field's most influential researchers and writers Together they present a compelling picture of the motivations people have for learning languages the diverse ways we can research motivation and the implications for promoting and sustaining learners motivation The first section outlines the main theoretical approaches to language learning motivation the next section presents ways in which motivation theory has been applied in practice the third section showcases examples of motivation research in particular contexts and with particular types of language learners and the final section describes the exciting directions that contemporary research is taking promising important new insights for academics and practitioners alike

Research Methods in Applied Linguistics Brian Paltridge, Aek Phakiti, 2015-08-27 Research Methods in Applied Linguistics is designed to be the essential one volume resource for students The book includes qualitative quantitative and mixed methods research techniques and approaches ethical considerations sample studies a glossary of key terms resources for students As well as covering a range of methodological issues it looks at numerous areas in depth including language learning strategies motivation teacher beliefs language and identity pragmatics vocabulary and grammar Comprehensive and accessible this is the essential guide to research methods for undergraduate and postgraduate students in applied linguistics and language studies

Language Learning Motivation Ema Ushioda, 2020-07-13 In this thought provoking book Ema Ushioda asks why we research language learning motivation whose interests the research serves and who ultimately benefits Examining the major theoretical and research developments in this vibrant field from its origins to the present day the author interrogates the goals and values driving academic inquiry and argues for a more socially conscious and socially responsive orientation to researching language learning motivation The book challenges this research field to contribute to critical movements in applied linguistics to address globally and locally relevant societal issues where language and motivation matter Ema Ushioda's compelling authoritative and timely book re-writes the story of L2 motivation research through the ethical lens Her probing reflection is not meant to soothe but to ask difficult questions about why we research and for whom It is impossible to imagine future L2 motivation scholarship that does not treat them seriously Maggie Kubanyiova Professor of Language Education University of Leeds Ema Ushioda is a Professor and Head of the Department of Applied Linguistics at the University of Warwick Oxford Applied Linguistics Series Advisers Anne Burns and Diane Larsen Freeman

Attitudes, Orientations, and Motivations in Language Learning Zoltan Dornyei, 2003-04-11 Motivation is one of the key learner characteristics that determine the rate and success of language learning This volume addresses motivation in language learning motives associated with certain features of the language the language learner and the learning situation Discusses and dissects the intriguingly complex characteristic of motivation in the process of language learning Explores recent developments and the most important research directions in the field including a selection of data based studies by some of the best known motivation researchers Continuum Companion to Research Methods in Applied Linguistics Brian Paltridge, Aek Phakiti, 2010-04-04 The Continuum Companion to Research Methods in Applied Linguistics is designed to be the essential one volume resource for students The book includes qualitative and quantitative methods research techniques and approaches ethical considerations sample studies a glossary of key terms resources for students As well as covering a range of methodological issues it looks at numerous areas in depth including researching gender and language language and identity pragmatics vocabulary and grammar Comprehensive and accessible this will be the essential guide to research methods for undergraduate and postgraduate students in applied linguistics and language studies Researching Language Learning Motivation Ali H. Al-Hoorie, Fruzsina Szabó, 2022-01-27 One of the most active areas in the field of second language acquisition language learning motivation is a burgeoning area of research Yet the plethora of new ideas and research directions can be confusing for newcomers to the discipline to navigate Offering concise bite size overviews of key contemporary research concepts and directions this book provides an invaluable guide to the contemporary state of the field Making the discussion of key topics accessible to a wider audience each chapter is written by a leading expert and reflects on cutting edge research issues From well established concepts such as engagement and learning goals to emerging ideas including contagion and plurilingualism this book provides easy to understand overviews and analysis of key contemporary themes Helping readers understand a field which can appear highly technical and overwhelming Researching Language Learning Motivation provides valuable insights perspectives and practical applications Second Language Learning Motivation in a European Context: The Case of Hungary Kata Csizér, 2021-01-04 This book provides an overview of second language L2 motivation research in a specific European context Hungary which has proved to offer an important laboratory for such research as a number of major political changes over the past 30 years have created a changing background for L2 learning in an increasingly globalized world The book provides an overview of theoretical research on L2 motivation together with detailed information on large scale L2 motivation studies in Hungary Further it presents a meta analysis of the most important investigations and qualitative data on teachers views regarding success in L2 learning In turn the interdisciplinary nature of L2 motivation is taken into account and relevant antecedent constructs to L2 motivation are investigated Lastly the book outlines possible future directions for L2 motivation research Studies in the Linguistic Sciences, 1999 Linguistics, 2005 Studies in Language and Literature University of Minnesota, 1919 Studies in Language, 2007 Motivation, Language Attitudes and Globalisation Zoltan Dornyei, Kata Csizer, Na3ra Na(c)Meth, 2006-04-12 This volume presents the results of the largest ever language attitude motivation survey in second language studies The research team gathered data from over 13 000 Hungarian language learners on three successive occasions in 1993 1999 and 2004 The examined period covers a particularly prominent time in Hungary s history the transition from a closed Communist society to a western style democracy that became a member of the European Union in 2004 Thus the book provides an attitudinal motivational flow chart describing how significant sociopolitical changes affect the language disposition of a nation
