A Bridge to Nowhere Donna Young, 2025-10-28 Artfully written and meticulously crafted A Bridge to Nowhere explores the lives of men and women in isolated settlements across Canada examining how their experiences are shaped by memory precarity and poverty Following men abandoned at remote rail sidings in western Canada and women left in rural settlements in northern New Brunswick Donna Young presents a powerful and unflinching Canadian story that critically analyses how poverty is represented in anthropological studies Based on research conducted in the 1980s and 1990s this innovative ethnography centres each chapter on a specific place or individual developing an analysis anchored in memory and relationality Young deftly connects the precariousness of these communities to the extraction of primary resources in the twentieth century while also addressing the gendered spaces and labour conditions that define their lives In navigating the complex and often contradictory forces at play the book engages with a storied loneliness set against rural landscapes and regional sensibilities Weaving together social history memory studies and the anthropology of performance A Bridge to Nowhere honours the emotional and social structures embedded in the landscape capturing the intensity of precarious living

The Fiddlehead Moment Tony Tremblay, 2019-12-05 For many Canadians the small province of New Brunswick on Canada's scenic east coast is a nice place to visit but no place to live plagued for generations by outmigration and economic stagnation In The Fiddlehead Moment Tony Tremblay challenges this potent stereotype by showcasing the work of a group of literary modernists who set out to change the meaning of New Brunswick in the national lexicon Alfred Bailey Desmond Pacey Fred Cogswell and a formidable group of local poets and cultural workers collectively New Brunswick's Fiddlehead School sought to restore New Brunswick's literary reputation by adapting avant garde modernist practices to the contours of the province opening it to the contemporary world while also encouraging writers to make it their subject The result was a non urban form of modernism that was as responsive to technical innovation as to the human geographies of New Brunswick By placing New Brunswick writers and critics at the forefront of Canadian literature in the midcentury modernist project Tremblay adds an important new chapter to our understanding of Canadian modernism The Fiddlehead Moment is the first critical examination of this group's considerable influence Whether through Bailey's ethnomethodology Pacey's critical ordering or Cogswell's editorial eclecticism in the Fiddlehead magazine and Fiddlehead Poetry Books authors in New Brunswick Tremblay argues had a profound impact on writing in Canada
