Success In Answering Reference Questions Two Studies:

Success in Answering Reference Questions Frances Benham, Ronald R. Powell, 1987 This volume reports two studies of reference accuracy in which participant data were gathered and examined Evaluation of Reference Services William A. Katz, Ruth A. Fraley, 1984 Essays on evaluation techniques for library reference operations in the USA includes a guide to measurement and planning of services communication and interview techniques in user librarian behaviour computerization of information retrieval data base structure includes a case study of a law information system choice of collections etc

References Evaluation of Reference Services Linda S Katz, 2013-10-18 Library authorities address the increasing significance of reference services and the increasing need for evaluation of those services to further ensure professionalism and efficiency Reference Quarterly, 1989 The Measurement and Evaluation of Library Services Sharon L. Baker, Frederick Wilfrid Lancaster, 1991 Reference and Information Services, 1991 The purpose of this collection of 24 articles is to bring together in a single convenient place a representative view of reference and information services for students teachers and librarians the convenience to beginning student and lazy librarian is worth the price LIBRARY JOURNAL Library Performance, Accountability and Responsiveness Ernest R. DeProspero, 1990 This volume is the most comprehensive compilation of ideas related to library performance yet assembled It brings together noted researchers and successful library directors and educators who have extended the landmark findings and efforts of their mentor and friend Ernest DeProspero The editors give a historical account of contemporary measurement activities suggest methodologies for measuring performance offer viewpoints on planning goal setting and validity and comment on problems associated with planning one of the major tools of measurement Readers of the book will develop informed opinions about planning a practice that when entered into unaware can enslave an organization in endless data gathering routines and tax their endurance beyond reasonable points Thought provoking comments on the directions taken and not taken by library thinkers challenge the reader to speculate about current library think RQ, 1990 Reference & User Services Quarterly, 2003 Report of the National Reading Panel : Teaching Children to Read : an Evidence-based Assessment of the Scientific Research Literature on Reading and Its Implications for Reading Instruction National Reading Panel (U.S.), 2000 Library and Information Science Annual Bohdan S. Wynar, 1988-06 Statistics for Library Decision Making Peter Herson, 1989 This handbook assists students in understanding statistics and the types of decisions that the selection of a test entails At the same time the volume will assist a broad audience by reviewing the research process by presenting fundamental statistical concepts and methods by identifying writings on library management using statistical analyses by discussing statistical applications to library management decision making and problem solving and by familiarizing library managers with statistical tables and analysis and graphics software The purpose of this volume is to supplement statistical textbooks and to inform library managers and library school students about the application of selected statistical tests and the interpretation of statistical findings This volume presents basic statistical and research concepts clearly It is not intended as a textbook that identifies numerous statistical tests and merely details their computations Rather the book complements the pool of existing textbooks by placing selected statistical applications in the context of the research process and library decision

Unobtrusive Evaluation of the Accuracy of Telephone Reference Services in Health Sciences Libraries Beth M. Paskoff,1992 Evaluation and Library Decision Making Peter Hernon,Charles R. McClure,1990 Evaluation which is a critical component of the planning process assesses the effectiveness and efficiency of library programs and services in the context of stated goals and objectives This book views evaluation as a type of research study in which evaluators collect either research or management data Chapters discuss steps of the evaluation process and provide practical examples of the application of these steps to specific library problems The overall objectives of the volume are to introduce readers to the relationship between planning and evaluation to discuss the components of an evaluation study in clear prose so that readers can easily understand the different steps to foster an attitude that recognizes the importance of evaluation for the development of library programs and services to offer examples of each component of the evaluation process to identify writings on evaluation in libraries and information centers and to encourage organizational change and underscore the importance of evaluation to library decision making The Bowker Annual of Library and Book Trade Information Filomena Simora,Margaret Spier,1988 Decision Making for Library Management Michael R. W. Bommer,Ronald W. Chorba,1982 Publications of the Faculty and Staff ... University of Alabama,1986 Library Literature H.W. Wilson Company,1934 An index to library and information science Library Literature William A. Katz,Joel J. Schwartz,1992-12 No descriptive material is available for this title Measuring Quality Roswitha Poll,Peter te Boekhorst,2008-11-03 The first edition of this handbook appeared in 1996 and dealt with academic libraries It gained wide acceptance and was translated into five other languages After ten years the new edition widens the perspective to public libraries and adds indicators for electronic services and cost effectiveness The handbook has been considerably enlarged from 17 to 40 indicators It gives practical help by showing examples of possible results for each indicator The handbook is intended as practical instrument for the evaluation of library services Although it aims specifically at academic and public libraries most indicators will also apply to all other types of libraries
