

The Cold War

The Cold War took place between August 1945 and December 1991. The Cold War was between two superpowers, the United States and the USSR, although it affected many more countries. It was a different type of war where there was no direct fighting. Instead, each superpower would support opposing sides in smaller conflicts. There were also concerns that direct nuclear war would arise.

The Second World War

By the end of the Second World War, the US and USSR were allies and were on the same side, fighting against Nazi Germany and its allies. Afterwards, there were differences and tensions which caused the Cold War to develop.

The Two Superpowers

The US is a democracy which means that the citizens vote in free elections for their government. The US government believed that capitalism, where private owners control their businesses, would be the best way for countries to recover from the Second World War. It can mean that people have different amounts of wealth depending upon their jobs and family circumstances.

The USSR had a different type of government led by the Communist Party. Communists believe that a country's wealth should be shared by everyone. People's lives in the USSR were closely controlled by the government and they did not have free elections in the same way as the US.

The Cold War

The End of the Cold War

By the late 1980s, the Cold War was proving too expensive for both the US and the USSR. There were also protests and demonstrations in many Eastern European countries against the USSR.

In November 1989, the Berlin Wall was broken down after protests.

On 25th December 1991, the leader of the Communist Party resigned and the Soviet Union was dissolved the following day. The Cold War was over.

Superpower A country that has a lot of influence around the world because of its military or economic power.

USSR A group of communist republics which was known as the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics between 1922 and 1991. It was also known as the Soviet Union.

The Cold War File:

The Cold War File Andy East, 1983 Cold War Files Cold War International History Project, 2005 John le Carré and the Cold War Toby Manning, 2018-01-25 John le Carré and the Cold War explores the historical contexts and political implications of le Carré's major Cold War novels. The first in-depth study of le Carré this century, this book analyses his work in light of key topics in 20th-century history including containment of Communism, decolonization, the Berlin Wall, the Cuban missile crisis, the Cambridge spy ring, the Vietnam War, the 70s oil crisis, and Thatcherism. Examining The Spy Who Came in from the Cold (1963), Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy (1974), Smiley's People (1979), and other novels, this book offers an illuminating picture of Cold War Britain while situating le Carré's work alongside that of George Orwell, Graham Greene, and Ian Fleming. Providing a valuable contribution to contemporary understandings of both British spy fiction and post-war fiction, Toby Manning challenges the critical consensus to reveal a considerably less radical writer than is conventionally presented.

The Vietnam War Files Jeffrey P. Kimball, 2004. The new evidence uncovers a number of behind-the-scenes plays such as Nixon's secret nuclear alert of October 1969 and sheds more light on Nixon's goals in Vietnam and his and Kissinger's strategies of Vietnamization, the China card, and triangular diplomacy. The excerpted documents also reveal significant new information about the purposes of the Linebacker bombings, Nixon's manipulation of the POW issue, and the conduct of the secret negotiations in Paris, as well as other key topics, events, and issues. All of these are effectively framed by Kimball whose introductions to each document provide historical context.

The Cold War John Lamberton Harper, 2011-05-27. The East-West struggle for supremacy from 1945 to 1989 shaped the lives of hundreds of millions and brought the world to the brink of disaster on several occasions. More than two decades on, the debate over its causes and dynamics is far from over. Drawing on the latest archival evidence and scholarly research, prize-winning historian John Lamberton Harper provides a concise, briskly written assessment of the Cold War. Why did it start and eventually envelope nearly every corner of the planet? Why did it stay cold at least in its original European theatre? Why did it end, and who should take the credit? Harper illuminates the deep-seated behavioural patterns within both the Soviet Union and the United States: the search for security through expansion and military might, the belief in a messianic mission to uplift humanity, but also a readiness to live and let live based on membership in a common state system and a shared interest in survival. He stresses ways in which internal competitions for political power tilted both the U.S. and Soviet systems towards bellicosity and obsessive preparation for a hot war that no one seriously intended to begin. It is a story of delusions of omnipotence and rash behavior punctuated by moments of redeeming statesmanship and self-restraint. Harper concludes that rather than triumphalism, a clear look back at the Cold War's close calls with catastrophe and enormous cost in lives and treasure ought to evoke a sense of regret and humility, as well as relief.
