The Changing Face Of Colchester:

The Changing Face of Colchester Patrick Denney,2002 The Changing Face of National Security Robert Mandel,1994-09-29 This book contains a probing and comprehensive theoretical analysis of the emerging notion of national security in light of the dramatic post Cold War transformation of the international system It begins with a discussion of the nature of this change emphasizing declining national sovereignty escalating international interdependence and proliferating anarchic conflict After developing a framework of the conceptual components of national security this study focuses on analyzing change both in priorities and tradeoffs in military security economic security resource environmental security and political cultural security Brief case studies of the 1991 Gulf War the 1991 Maastricht Treaty the 1992 Earth Summit and the ongoing Yugoslavia conflict illustrate the theoretical contentions Finally a set of crucial fundamental security policy challenges and responses conclude the book Index to the East Anglian Magazine T. Mollard,1968 Sell-Outs or Warriors for Change? Malliga Och,Shauna Shames,Rosalyn Cooperman,2022-11-28 This book addresses the central question of how right wing women navigate the cross pressures between gender identity and political ideology The hope has always been that more women in politics would lead to greater inclusion of women s voices and interests in decision making and policy Yet this is not always the case some prominent conservative women such as Margaret Thatcher have rejected the feminist label while others such as Angela Merkel have reluctantly accepted it Republican women in the U S Congress have embraced social and economic policies contrary to what many consider to be women s issues while EU Commission president Ursula von der Leyen is a staunch supporter of feminist ideas Other conservative women such as Marine LePen in France strategically use feminist ideas to justify their conservative stances on immigration This brings up an interesting yet understudied question under what circumstances do conservative women become feminist allies and when do they toe the party line It is this tension between women s political representation and conservatism that this edited volume explores The chapters in this book except for Chapter 3 were originally published as a special issue of Journal of Women Politics Policy

Blood of the Provinces Ian Haynes,2013-10-03 This is the first fully comprehensive study of the auxilia a non citizen force which constituted more than half of Rome s celebrated armies Diverse in origins character and culture they played an essential role in building the empire sustaining the unequal peace celebrated as the pax Romana and enacting the emperor s writ The New Statesman ,1914 The Racialization of Sexism Francesca Scrinzi,2023-12-05 Populist radical right PRR parties are questioning women s rights and sexual democracy Yet paradoxically they appropriate issues of gender equality to attack migrants and to mobilize a growing number of women as voters and members based on a racialization of sexism discourse This book engages with these puzzling developments in order to investigate the evolving ideologies of PRR parties and their understudied membership from a gender perspective Why do men and women join these parties How do they negotiate the gendered propaganda of their organizations Do these parties mobilize their members in gender specific ways How is the PRR achieving growing political legitimacy through such renewed gendered ideologies And how does its mainstreaming strategy articulate with gendered social change and the advent of new generations of activists Drawing on a two year comparative and intersectional study of the Lega Nord in Italy and the Front national now Rassemblement national in France and based on life histories of over 100 activists The Racialization of Sexism tackles how gender at the interplay with class ethnicity age and religion shapes the parties strategies as well as their activists experiences and how gender relations are transformed in unconventional ways within these parties This book will be of interest to those studying gender as well as nationalism racism social movements radical politics and party politics

Essex Sound Archive, a Joint Venture by Essex County Council and BBC Essex, 1992 Management Services, 1995 The Archaeology of Post-medieval Religion Chris King, Duncan Sayer, 2011 Evidence gleaned from archaeology sheds dramatic new light on religious practices and identities between the later sixteenth and the nineteenth centuries The post medieval period was one of profound religious and cultural change of sometimes violent religious conflict and of a dramatic growth in religious pluralism The essays collected here in what is the first book to focus on the material evidence demonstrate the significant contribution that archaeology can make to a deeper understanding of religion They take a broad interdisciplinary approach to the spatial and material context of religious life using buildings and landscapes religious objects and excavated cemeteries alongside cartographic and documentary sources to reveal the complexity of religious practices and identities in varied regions of post medieval Britain Europe and the wider world Topics covered include the transformation of religious buildings and landscapes in the centuries after the European Reformation the role of religious minorities and immigrant groups in early modern cities the architectural and landscape context of eighteenth and nineteenth century nonconformity and the development of post medieval burial practices and funerary customs Offering a unique perspective on the material remains of the post medieval period this volume will be of significant value to archaeologists and historians interested in the religious and cultural transformation of the early modern world Contributors Chris King Duncan Sayer Andrew Spicer Philippa Woodcock Matthias Range Simon Roffey Greig Parker Jeremy Lake Eric Berry Peter Herring Claire Strachan Peter Benes Diana Mahoney Swales Richard O'Neill Hugh Willmott Natasha Powers Adrian Miles Anwen Cedifor Caffell Rachel Clarke Rosie Morris The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2004 Essex Journal, 1999 Cities between Competitiveness and Cohesion Peter Ache, Hans Thor Andersen, Thomas Maloutas, Mike Raco, Tuna Taşan-Kok, 2008-04-29 This book offers a cross European analysis of urban and regional strategies of reconciling welfare and competitiveness It develops an understanding of the strategy challenge to reconcile competitiveness with cohesion and provides an analysis of cities and regions as actors in multi level governance settings The book offers a European comparative view on housing labour markets enterprises ethnical issues gender dimensions urban development projects transport and sustainability

Islamic Movements of Europe Frank Peter, Rafael Ortega, 2014-09-08 Islam in Europe and Islamophobia are subjects of vital global importance which currently preoccupy policy makers and academics alike Through the examination of various European Muslim groups and institutions that have branched off from Islamic movements including the Muslim Brotherhood Hizb ut Tahrir and Jama at i Islami this book outlines the configuration of social political and religious processes that have given rise to new kinds of European Muslim organisations The authors offer a new perspective on these Muslim groups and seek to reclaim them from the often highly charged public debates by placing them within the context of their origins as politicised religious movements on the one hand and their ongoing incorporation into European societal structures on the other They also consider the relationship of these organisations to their parent movements and examine the presence of Islam in European education and higher education institutions Taking into account the connection between Islamic movements and the perceived surge of Islamophobia in Europe this book does not debate the question of whether these groups fit into normative or cultural structures of European nation states but rather examines how these structures have changed through their interaction with these groups and the growing Muslim population within Europe It does not consider political Islam as the antithesis to a refined notion of secularism but as a form of public religion which contributes to the ever changing structure of Europe s secular regimes Featuring the work of more than 40 scholars from around the world this is the comprehensive guide to Islamic movements in Europe offering original definitive perspectives on Muslims and Islam in Europe today It will be essential reading for policy makers political commentators and scholars alike
