Schwartz, Shimon Gesundheit, 2015-01-01 The Biblical View of Man argues cogently that the Bible is more about human beings than about God and insists that in the biblical view what human beings need is not so much wisdom or grace but rather their own free will to fulfill the obligations that a loving God has bestowed upon them in order to allow them to prove and improve themselves According to Rabbi Leo Adler the exercise of such free will rather than implying a lack of need for God actually requires a firm commitment to God First published in German in 1965 this engaging interpretation of the Bible appears in English for the first time      The Christian View of God and the World as Centring in the Incarnation James Orr, 1907      Christian View of God and the World James Orr, 1989      Somewhat Less Than God Leonard Verduin, 1970      Homeopathy and Early Christianity Pal Dragos, 2008 The hidden spiritual treasure of early Christianity represents a potential source of answers to the pressing questions of our time This book is the first attempt to pursue the deep structural similarities of a religion and homeopathic medicine The human body and the mystery of its energy bodily instance life energy cannot be considered using exclusively intellectual thought The doctrines passed down from the Orthodox Church Fathers regarding Christology and the Trinity provide the structural basis necessary to understand the metamorphoses of the human powers aimed at by homeopathy It is not uncommon that these methods result in cases of healing bordering on the miraculous The divine energies in the view of man held by early Christianity enable us to reach a new dimension in homeopathy The loss of access to the divine energies also leads to functional activities without a frame of reference in homeopathy Handling symptoms without taking into account the constitution as a whole or the use of too high potencies mega potencies are thus unsuitable for practising Christians Pal Dragos leads a homeopathic out patients clinic in Munich and works in the Wachstumstrend Forschungsinstitut und Verlags GmbH in international and interdisciplinary structuration research www.paldragos.de      Rethinking Plato and Platonism Cornelia J. de Vogel, 1988      The Western Christian Advocate, 1906      The Christian Understanding of Man Thomas Edmund Jessop, 1938 Brunner Austin Farrer W M Horton Pierre Maury      The Glory of the Ministry A. Middelmann, 2011-03-02 At the creation of the world God gave mankind the responsibility to exercise dominion over the earth Man was to use the earth and its abundance of resources to satisfy his physical needs but he was also to care for the earth and its creatures as a wise and godly steward Reading about endangered species or another oil spill will make it abundantly clear that the human race has failed miserably in its God given mandate How did we get to this point Where should we go from here This classic by Francis Schaeffer now repackaged looks at contemporary ecological crises through the lens of theology and Scripture Renowned for his work in applied philosophy and theology Schaeffer answers serious philosophical questions about creation and ecology He concludes that we must return to a profoundly and radically biblical understanding of God's relationship to the earth and of our divine mandate to exercise godly dominion over it Repackaged and republished Pollution and the Death of Man carries an important and relevant message for our day With concluding chapter by Udo Middelmann A Philosophy of the Christian Revelation Edwin Lewis,1940 A Christian Student's Survival Guide Ph D Dr Robert a Morey,2010-07 The Christian View of Man John Gresham Machen,1937
