No Holds Barred Tom Trepiak, 2020-03-25 A childhood growing up in Newport Kentucky also known as Sin City USA taught Frank Cheek that the first punch is the winning punch most of the time He spent half his time with the good kids who played sports and half his time with the so-called hoods who were always in the middle of trouble His dad loved work and discipline and his mom loved sports He found himself at the crossroads after graduating from high school He knew the only future in Newport for him would center around trouble and violence So he joined the Marine Corps Sports hard work humor and occasionally throwing the first punch got him through the Corps It wasn't until the Lord got a hold of him that Frank could let go of the need to throw the first punch But he held onto sports hard work and humor to forge a coaching career at the high school and college level that has placed him in five Halls of Fame His long career at Humboldt State included 22 years coaching wrestling and 25 years coaching softball Fifteen of his teams finished in the nation s Top 10 His path from a so called hood to a multiple national champion is a story of how a life dedicated to Jesus is a life of redemption grace humility and victory

Intimacy With God Rejoyce Zikpi,2023-06-27 I came home from work one evening needing to talk to God about something There was something on my heart I wanted to pray but did not know how So I lifted my hands in the air in surrender to God As a young girl growing up in a religious home my life was deeply molded by what my parents taught me They belonged to the Pentecostal church and they made sure that I was ingrained in the Bible from a very young age My understanding of religion at an early age was that there was one right way and that way was Pentecostalism I did not know that I could have a personal relationship with God I did not know that Jesus died for my sins that I might have the assurance of salvation the gift of eternal life In coming to Christ I now had a Heavenly Father In Intimacy With God the author Rejoyce Zikpi shares her story about her personal faith how doubting God turned into an intimate journey with Him If you have ever struggled with your personal faith or have a desire to have intimacy with God I hope this book will encourage you
