The Classics at Cornell Gordon MacDonald Kirkwood,2000 The Classics at Cornell Gordon Kirkwood,2000-02-01 Classical Weekly ,1913 The Classical Weekly ,1924 The Cambridge Companion to the Roman Republic Harriet I. Flower,2004-01-19 Publisher Description A Companion to the Translation of Classical Epic Richard H.
Armstrong,Alexandra Lianeri,2025-03-10 The first volume of its kind to integrate trends in Translation Studies with Classical Reception Studies A Companion to the Translation of Classical Epic provides a comprehensive and wide ranging account of key debates and case studies centered the translation of Greek and Latin epics Rather than situating translation studies as a complementary field or an aspect of classical reception the Companion offers a systematic framework for adapting and incorporating translation studies fully into classical studies Its many chapters elaborate how translation is a central element in the epic s reception trajectories across the globe and addresses theoretical and methodological concerns arising from this conjunction The Companion does not just provide a comprehensive overview of the translation theories it covers but also offers fresh insights into theoretical and methodological issues currently at the top of the interdisciplinary agenda of scholars studying the global routes of ancient epic In its sections leading classicists translation theorists classical reception scholars and cultural historians from Europe and North and South America reconfigure questions this research faces today highlighting methods for an integrated approach It explores how this integrated perspective responds to key challenges in the study of the epic s reception emphasizing topics of temporality gender agency community target language politics and material production A special section also features detailed dialogues with active translators such as Emily Wilson Stanley Lombardo and Susanna Braund who speak extensively and frankly about their work This is a key volume for all students and scholars who want to engage with research reflecting the contemporary agenda in classical reception translation studies and the study of epic in its global literary and cultural routes The Classical World ,1917 A Comparative Study of Thirty City-state Cultures Mogens Herman Hansen,2000 Anne Carson: Antiquity Laura Jansen,2021-10-07 From her seminal Eros the Bittersweet 1986 to her experimental Float 2016 Bakkhai 2017 and Norma Jeane Baker of Troy 2019 Anne Carson s engagement with antiquity has been deeply influential to generations of readers both inside and outside of academia One reason for her success is the versatile scope of her classically oriented oeuvre which she rethinks across multiple media and categories Yet an equally significant reason is her profile as a classicist In this role Carson unfailingly refuses to conform to the established conventions and situated practices of her discipline in favour of a mode of reading classical literature that allows for interpretative and creative freedom From a multi praxis cross disciplinary perspective the volume explores the erudite indiscipline of Carson s classicism as it emerges in her poetry translations essays and visual artistry It argues that her classicism is irreducible to a single vision and that it is best approached as integral to the protean character of her artistic thought Anne Carson Antiquity collects twenty essays by poets translators artists practitioners and scholars It offers the first collective study of the author's classicism while drawing attention to one of the most avant garde multifaceted readings of the classical past The West & the Map of the World Matthew Richardson, 2010 Inspired by antique maps and the mapmakers global vision this book presents the past as a single narrative in which European history is an offshoot of Asian history The author explains that the dominating ethos of the modern West owes more to hordes of Asian nomads who colonised Europe than to the classical civilisation of the Greeks and Romans Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1970 Everybody's Cyclopedia Charles Leonard-Stuart, George Jotham Hagar, 1912 American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977 R.R.
