against the backdrop of Schillebeeckx's hermeneutic premises. In the concluding chapter his reflections on secularisation culminate in a God concept that can function fruitfully in a modern culture that assigns the future pride of place God as the future of humankind. Written in a period pregnant with Cultural Revolution and religious change, the book foregrounds the pivotal issue of secularisation in a thought provoking way. With feverish urgency he reflects on various forms of religiosity in the modern world. His contribution to the debate could just as well have been written today.

Organized by theme, the collection includes full length books as well as articles, seminar transcripts, poems, plays, and interviews, many of which have never before been available in book form. From memoirs of his escape from Chinese occupied Tibet to insightful discussions of psychology, mind, and meditation, from original verse and calligraphy to the esoteric lore of tantric Buddhism, the impressive range of Trungpa's vision, talents, and teachings is showcased in this landmark series. Volume Nine contains an extremely diverse group of teachings. It includes both early and later talks, from an article published in 1966 in India to books published in the new millennium, to material from a set of cards that present the Shambhala warrior slogans. The subject matter ranges from Zen to dharma art, from Shambhala politics to Vajrayana buddhadharma. The selected writings in this book are articles from before Chogyam Trungpa's death in 1987 and include two interviews and several previously unpublished pieces.

The Collected Works of Edward Schillebeeckx Volume 9 Edward Schillebeeckx, 2014-09-25. The Church with a Human Face: A New Expanded Theology of Ministry elaborates historically and theologically the main line of his argument. It further includes reactions and reflections on criticism he received. The work outlines the evolution of ecclesiastical office starting with Jesus Christ and his messianic community, followed by a description of the practice and theology of ministry in the early Christian communities and tracing different forms of ministry in the history of the Church. Of particular interest is the section on the Complaints of the People, which deals with the discontent of many connected with the position of women and married priests. As long as women are not allowed to participate fully in the decisions of the Church, Schillebeeckx argues, they will not be liberated and their complaints will remain a fundamental charge that challenges the church.
