Sneider,2011-02-08 Over the past fifteen years Northeast Asia has witnessed growing intraregional exchanges and interactions especially in the realms of culture and economy Still the region cannot escape from the burden of history This book examines the formation of historical memory in four Northeast Asian societies China Japan South Korea and Taiwan and the United States focusing on the period from the beginning of the Sino Japanese war in 1931 until the formal conclusion of the Pacific War with the San Francisco Peace Treaty of 1951 The contributors analyse the recent efforts of Korean Japanese and Chinese scholars to write a common history of Northeast Asia and question the underlying motivations for their efforts and subsequent achievements In doing so they contend that the greatest obstacle to reconciliation in Northeast Asia lies in the existence of divided and often conflicting historical memories The book argues that a more fruitful approach lies in understanding how historical memory has evolved in each country and been incorporated into respective master narratives Through uncovering the existence of different master narratives it is hoped citizens will develop a more self critical self reflective approach to their own history and that such an introspective effort has the potential to lay the foundation for greater self and mutual understanding and eventual historical reconciliation in the region This book will be essential reading for students and scholars of Asian history Asian education and international relations in East Asia Prentice Hall World History Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis,Anthony Esler,Discovery School (Firm),Pearson Education, Inc,Pearson/Prentice Hall,2011 World History: Connections to Today Third Edition Survey on Audiotape 2001c ,2000-04-01 Chiselled Horizons: A Multi-Cultural Approach to Visual Literacy Taina Brown,Alejandro Mieses Castellanos,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Shaping visual literacy has been at the forefront of contemporary discourse as images have increasingly surpassed words in becoming the primary vehicles to persuade our emotions Visually encoded domains of symbols and signs inform the educational public and entertainment industries increasingly as an undifferentiated whole aided by globalizing media forces in various forms Whether top down peer peer one to many or many to many this volume attempts to derive sets of rules used to visually decode patterns present in certain media formats press cinema television and maps among others and the place of the spectator in their respective dynamics The topics discussed transition through various approaches to deconstruct mass media influences to engage critical thinking skills and ending with a collection of chapters dedicated to exploring their effects upon children and the capacity to be implemented to foster collaboration based creative learning environments World History : Connections to Today Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis,1999 Prentice Hall World History Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis,Anthony Esler,Burton F. students to become critical researchers and offers practical lessons that empower students to excavate information that will help them learn This guide to teaching news literacy explores a wealth of resources and classroom tested lessons that educators in grades 7 12 can use in their own libraries and classrooms To introduce the concept of news literacy the authors explain the steps of the inquiry and research process in detail and examine the Stanford History Education Group SHEG 2016 report Evaluating Information The Cornerstone of Civic Online Reasoning and related research studies Lesson plans corresponding to each stage of the process are coordinated to relevant standards from the CCSS and ISTE and are accompanied by rubrics for providing students feedback on their progress as well as samples of student work as it evolved through the stages Furthermore the authors anecdotal insights from their experiences in collaboratively implementing the lessons with colleagues are an invaluable addition for any librarian seeking to work with teachers to help students become critical researchers
