Yolanda Meditation Made Simple Yolanda Pettinato,2003 Queen for a Day Maxine Rosaler,2018-06-05 We know by page one of Queen for a Day that Mimi Slavitt's three year old son is autistic but if we told her she wouldn't listen because she doesn't want to know until at last Danny's behavior becomes so strange even she can't ignore it After her son's diagnosis Mimi finds herself in a world nearly as isolating as her son's It is a world she shares only with mothers like herself women chosen against their will for lives of sacrifice and martyrdom Searching for miracles begging for the help of heartless bureaucracies while arranging every minute of every day for children who can never be left alone they exist in a state of perpetual crisis normal life always just out of reach In chapters told from Mimi's point of view and theirs we meet these women each a conflicted complex character totally unsuited for sainthood and dreaming of the day she can just walk away Taking its title from the 1950s reality TV show in which the contestants housewives living lives filled with pain and suffering competed with each other for deluxe refrigerators and sets of stainless steel silverware Queen for a Day portrays a group of imperfect women living under enormous pressure Rosaler tells their story in ironic precise and vivid prose with dark humor and insight born of first hand experience The Twins of Tessar Christine Kate Castigliano,2009-05 Alone in her ramshackle house 13 year old Yolanda Mae Crick looks in the mirror and sees a boy's face instead of her own Yolanda follows his reflection to the ancient world of Tessar where she learns to use her extraordinary gift the vision to see the truth But will she ever find the real boy behind the reflection Orion's Wrath Scott H. Delo,2002-03 Mark Doran has given up on happiness all he wants now is a little peace A failed marriage disappointing career and addiction to everything under the sun have made Mark chuck everything and seek the path to enlightenment However Mark's tranquil life goes by the wayside when his son wakes him early one Sunday with a telephone call Dad I shot someone I couldn't help it Mark races from Washington DC to Maryland's Eastern Shore to investigate His son witnessed a mob killing and shot the killer in self defense To protect him from retaliation Mark uses his position as a reporter to pin the killing on the vigilante Orion He enlists the aid of an ex cop dying of cancer to help maintain the facade Before Mark knows it the mob comes to town the FBI starts investigating and the ex cop and his psychotic friend are gearing up for a war To make matters worse Mark's ex wife Yolanda can't keep her hands off him He wants to be supportive after all her son is in danger too but he still bears the scars from her leaving him Then all hell breaks loose when the real Orion pays a visit Teaching and Leading with Emotional Intelligence Peggy Daly Pizzo,2018 In this much needed text the author provides dilemma based teaching cases that teachers and early childhood leaders can analyze and discuss to build problem solving and decision making skills Readers will reflect on challenges they are likely to experience in practice addressing issues such as linguistically and culturally isolated children children refusing to share with others high energy children struggling to develop self regulation and executive function and children experiencing trauma They will also examine issues related to inadequate resources and teacher compensation Each case portrays early childhood practitioners as they transform challenging scenarios into opportunities for the growth of social and emotional skills This one of a kind resource can be used for professional development for courses that address the emotional and social development of young children and with students beginning their supervised field experience to help bridge their research and practice Book Features Original teaching cases that combine research theory and the experiences of highly skilled teachers and leaders Compelling narratives that encourage students to generate and share inner portfolios of emotionally intelligent strategies Discussion questions for each case designed to stimulate analytic and critical reasoning Resources for Delving Deeper for both research and best practice program guidance A case based professional development approach that instructors can use to balance both didactic presentations and supervised field experiences Jet,2002-01-14 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Tolstoy Lied Rachel Kadish,2006 Headed for tenure at a major university Tracy Farber is determined to demonstrate that Tolstoy is wrong in his argument that only unhappiness is interesting and sets out to prove that happiness and the search for happiness are complicated
