The Christmas Cookie David Gregory, Gregory Wirth, 2025-08-24 The Christmas Cookie Stories from the Counter Some stories warm you like a cookie fresh from the oven Others linger reminding you of people and places that leave their mark long after the season ends In The Christmas Cookie Stories from the Counter Gregory Wirth invites readers to pull up a chair in a small town shop where coffee cocoa and conversation flow as easily as the snow outside the window Each story captures a moment at the counter a fleeting exchange a glimpse of memory or the quiet pause that only the holidays seem to bring From the lighthearted request of a regular customer to the unspoken weight of a soldier s story these vignettes reveal how the simplest encounters carry depth humor and humanity At the counter lives intersect in ways that remind us that Christmas isn t only about the celebration of a day but about the choices connections and reflections that shape us through every season More than a collection of short stories The Christmas Cookie is a companion for winter evenings a book to share with friends or savor alone with a warm drink in hand It is a reminder that life is found not in rushing through the season but in noticing its details the creak of an old floorboard the hush of snowfall the smile that lingers longer than expected Whether read in one sitting or savored one story at a time The Christmas Cookie offers a timeless invitation to pause to listen and to find yourself in the stories that unfold when you simply stop at the counter
