The Complete Works of Richard Sibbes, D.D. Richard Sibbes,1862

The Catholic Worker Movement Mark Zwick,Louise Zwick,2005 This book is essential reading for understanding the legacy behind the Catholic Worker Movement The founders of the movement Dorothy Day and Peter Maurin met during the Great Depression in 1932 Their collaboration sparked something in the Church that has been both an inspiration and a reproach to American Catholicism Dorothy Day is already a cultural icon Once maligned she is now being considered for sainthood From a bohemian circle that included Eugene O Neil to her controversial labor politics to the founding of the Catholic Worker Movement she lived out a civil rights pacifism with a spirituality that took radical message of the Gospel to heart Peter Maurin has been less celebrated but was equally important to the movement that embraced and uplifted the poor among us Dorothy Day said he was a genius a saint an agitator a writer a lecturer a poor man and a shabby tramp Mark and Louise Zwick's thorough research into the Catholic Worker Movement reveals who influenced Peter Maurin and Dorothy Day and how the influence materialized into much more than good ideas. Dostoevsky, Catherine of Siena, Teresa of Avila, Francis of Assisi, Therese of Lisieux, Jacques and Raissa Maritain and many others contributed to fire in the minds of two people that sought to blow the dynamite of the Church in 20th century America. This fascinating and detailed work will be meaningful to readers interested in American history, social justice, religion, and public life. It will also appeal to Catholics wishing to live the Gospel with lives of action, contemplation, and prayer. The Poor and the People Called Methodists

Richard P. Heitzenrater, 2002. Details the progression of Methodist's views toward poverty-stricken individuals between 1729 and 1999. Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy Kenneth L. Davison, Jr., 2026-02-02. Reveals and explains the 14 Works of Mercy plus Mercy in the Mass, Divine Mercy, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, and Confession as the Tribunal of Mercy.

Faithful Careers Peter M. Smudde, 2021-07-04. In Faithful Careers, Peter M. Smudde contends that God calls us to live an integrated life that unifies both the spiritual and the secular aspects of life. As an introduction to integrating the Catholic faith with one's work, this book answers in the Catholic context basic questions of what work is, why work is important, who we are as workers, how may we have fruitful careers, where may we find help about faith-work integration, and when we should take next steps toward better integrating our work and the Catholic faith. Smudde demonstrates how the Catholic faith truly does apply to our labor and that our lives depend on that labor by putting forth particular matters of the faith that pertain to faithful careers. He then puts into real-world context pertinent teachings, concepts, principles, practices, and other means the Catholic Church provides for us so that those lessons can be practically applied on a daily basis. Sources such as the Bible and writings of the saints, popes, contemporary Catholic spiritual writers, apologists, and scholars are applied to strengthen the support made about the book's content. Catholic professionals at all stages of their careers will welcome this insightful book which explores the call to put spirituality in the foreground to obtain ever deeper faith and thereby greater integration of faith in everyday life and career. Have Mercy! Jeanette Martino Land, 2012-07-01. Take action in your faith and practice the seven spiritual works of mercy. St. Paul instructs us to pray without ceasing (1 Thessalonians 5:17) and the spiritual works of mercy help us to be mindful of others' emotional and spiritual needs. Jeanette Martino Land writes that the spiritual works of mercy accompany and complement the corporal works of mercy. They focus more on alleviating the spiritual and emotional needs of others; therefore, prayer and forgiveness are very important. Because they are spiritual in nature, these works of mercy often are more difficult to actualize and put into practice. Here you will find forty-two contemporary ways to nurture the life of others. We are all in need of love and acts of mercy at every moment. Who is in need of care in your household, place of employment, community, country, or globally? What can you do to care for those in need? Choose your way and continue to live the Gospel in your midst. Pamphlet Youth Ministry Strategies Michael Theisen, 2000-09-16.
