original essays by prominent medievalists which address problems posed by contemporary literary and cultural theory Taken together the essays call into question the view that contemporary criticism has little to say about medieval literature and that medieval studies should remain isolated from the issues of contemporary criticism The contributors apply a variety of critical methodologies to explore issues in textuality intertextuality and the role of the reader in works of medieval writers as diverse as Chaucer Dante Christine de Pizan Anselm and Talavera Incorporating critical approaches such as deconstructionism Marxism feminism new historicism and reader response criticism the essays place these writers and their texts within a wider realm of cultural reference that embraces philosophy religion rhetoric history politics and anthropology      Lofty
