Smokeys Big Day

DeHaven Jacque Alexander

Smokeys Big Day:

Little Joe Beverly Jones Copeland, 2018-09-19 Joe was born in San Antonio Texas on the twenty fourth of September 1930 to his parents Joe W and Margaret Swift Copeland He was a Texan through and through and he grew up doing the things that were expected of a child on a large Texas ranch things that today seem unbelievable for children to do In the already hostile hostile environment of the west Texas desert the Great Depression was extremely hard on the ranchers and farmers in this region and this is where Joe s story begins He grew up in a time when life was simpler ranch life was challenging and people appreciated the cherished blessings of many friends and large families Smokey Jack and the Colonel Jon Blackwell, 2018-06-18 Life is sweet when you re a young Jack Russell pup still a few months shy of your first birthday And Smokey Jack loves his new life with his momma and the Colonel the kindly old couple who recently adopted him even though he fears he will not live up to his Colonel s high standards something Smokey wants more than anything in the whole world But their happy existence is interrupted when a mysterious blue mist engulfs Smokey during his first hunt with the Colonel a mist accompanied by the unnatural smelling Not fox and a disembodied voice singing a childish tune Leading to the night Smokey gets caught in a flash flood with Jasmine the little girl who lives down the street from him But the trouble really starts when Jasmine s older sister Lily dives into the quickly deepening current of Huntsman Creek after them The Colonel can only watch as his young friends are washed into the floodplain s drainage pipe leading under the street And in their desperate struggle for survival the trio find themselves washed up against a strange convex object shaped much like an eye housing an evil that should have been left alone Smokey's Big Day Dettaven Jacque Alexander, 2002-09-01

Smokey Mountain Haven Frances Stegall, 2008 Cindy Buchanan was reared on her father s plantation and horse ranch with all the advantages of a privileged white pampered child On her wedding day she learns that her father has killed himself Even more crushing she learns that her biological mother is black As a result the groom calls off the wedding the creditors confiscate everything and she is sold as a slave Suffering the humiliation of the auction block the loss of her father her fiancé her friends and her way of life Cindy finds her new life almost unbearable Neither black nor white she struggles with her identity Confronted with this harsh reality she forms new friendships and new loves Publisher s description Smokey's Big Day DeHaven Jacque Alexander, 2021-04-08 Smokey is a little kitten who knows exactly what he likes and doesn t like Smokey likes to play He likes to sit and stare out windows But Smokey doesn t like to go outside He is too scared No one can make him go outside But now it s time for Smokey to get his shots He needs to go out and see the veterinarian Will he have the courage to go Will his parents be able to get him there What adventures will he encounter along the way Smokey s Big Day by DeHaven Jacque Alexander is an enter taining and warmly illustrated story for preschoolers Smokey Bear 20252 William Clifford Lawter, 1994 Outlines the history of Smokey Bear a real bear rescued from a forest fire sent to the National Zoo the famous poster the uniforms worn by the nation s forest service Jewish Maxwell Street Stories , 2004 Anyone who has seen Maxwell Street has a story about Maxwell Street You didn't have to shop there work there or eat there You didn't have to be Jewish You just had to go there or merely pass by in order to experience something that stuck in your mind forever Only a few blocks south of Chicago's downtown Maxwell Street was predominately a Jewish enclave but you could also hear the Blues bargain with Gypsies and find bargain hunters from all walks of life This book focuses on the stories of the last Jewish generations that lived and worked in the Maxwell Street market area Beginning in the late 19th century it was there that thousands of Jewish immigrants first grasped the American dream The descendents of those first Jewish peddlers absorbed the legacies left them some went on to be among the most notable and successful personalities of the 20th century

On Maxwell Street the best merchandise was knowledge The Twilight Forest Gary Ferguson, 2025-10-16 With their towering cinnamon colored trunks and dusky green canopies ponderosa pine has long been a charismatic icon of the American West Yet a quiet unraveling has begun in the past decade in a vast area from Santa Fe to the Sierras more than two hundred million ponderosa have died While some trees will survive in cooler places scientists estimate that by mid century less than five percent of the ponderosa in the American Southwest may remain As the very character of this vast region shifts what will be left behind And how can we come to terms with such profound loss In The Twilight Forest Gary Ferguson brings readers on an expansive journey through the ponderosa forests of the Southwest both to mourn and to celebrate the forests that nurtured him In warm and luminous storytelling Ferguson weaves together the human and natural history of ponderosa from its march across the West more than 10 000 years ago to centuries of artists inspired by its dazzling stature and shady passageways Both wildfire and climate change are constant presences on this journey Fire is necessary for healthy forests but has turned deadly while climate change stresses even the hardiest beings of the natural world Yet the story of ponderosa reminds us that loss can be a gateway to connection to nature and each other While it is tempting to hide from the changes around us Ferguson offers a healing approach to pick even one of these thousand doors of loss pull it open and walk through The resulting journey is a life affirming tribute to one of America's most cherished wild landscapes
