Andy Stern,2005-10-10 Since oil displaced coal as the fuel of choice a century ago it has been the cause of some of the world's bloodiest conflicts This book examines the role oil has played in these conflicts in the last hundred years It looks at the actions governments and multinational companies have taken to secure their oil supplies since the 1920s often provoking accusations that they promote conflict and support corrupt or violent regimes Oil was an important factor in both world wars Conspiracy theorists believe it also sparked the Suez Crisis the Iran Iraq War the Biafra war and conflicts in Angola and Chad in which oil companies such as Elf Angola and various companies including ExxonMobil Chad are said to have played a murky role The book starts with a look at Empire building and how at the start of the 20th century Britain France and Germany sought to carve up the world's supplies of black gold The clamour for oil intensified during World War II in fact the bombing of Pearl Harbor was allegedly at least in part to prevent Indonesian oil from reaching the US Successive chapters chart the rise of OPEC and the Suez Crisis in 1956 and the Cold War Proxy Wars when the importance of Middle East drew the US and Soviet Union then perceived as the world's superpowers into conflicts between states in the region The book also assesses the power of major oil companies not only the huge environmental devastation they have caused but the local conflicts that have arisen For instance scandals involving the French oil company Elf indicate that it had funded both sides in the civil wars in Angola and the Congo In conclusion the book looks at other sources of oil chiefly in Latin America and sub-Saharan Africa What effect will large scale oil extraction have on these regions socioeconomic gear that has shaped our societies since the 16th century by moving from a Social Contract to a Natural Contract which takes into account the whole biosphere According to him the future society will be post capitalist or it will not be a complex society and even perhaps we must fear no society at all This book is backed up with the latest and best science and has made the complexities understandable for the average reader all in a context of hope for the future William J Ripple PhD Distinguished Professor of Ecology Director of the Alliance of World Scientists Oregon State University Midland Druggist and the Pharmaceutical Review ,1919 Shattering Health Superstitions Morris Fishbein,1930 Montreal Pharmaceutical Journal ,1916 The Scabbard and Blade Journal ,1939 Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature, 1975-1991 R.
