Sobukwe And Apartheid:

Sobukwe and Apartheid Benjamin Pogrund,1990 This book is the story of a remarkable man It is also the story of the friendship between Robert Sobukwe and Benjamin Pogrund whose joint experiences and passionate debates chart the course of a tyrannous regime and the development of concerted black resistance Thirty years ago Robert Sobukwe led a mass defiance of the pass laws of South Africa He persuaded blacks to present themselves at police stations and demand arrest A determinedly non violent protest turned to tragedy when police opened fire on a crowd killing 69 It was 21 March 1960 at Sharpeville and Sobukwe s last day of liberty After nine years of jail Sobukwe was released into banishment and house arrest in the small town of Kimberley He died there nine years later in February 1978

Lie on your wounds Robert Sobukwe,2019-02-01 Selection of Robert Mangaliso Sobukwe s letters from prison in opposition to South African apartheid This book collates nearly 300 prison letters to and from Robert Mangaliso Sobukwe inspirational political leader and first President of the Pan Africanist Congress These letters are testimony to the desolate conditions of his imprisonment and to his unbending commitment to the cause of African liberation The memory of Sobukwe has been sadly neglected in post apartheid South Africa With the changing political climate the decline of the African National Congress s power the re emergence of Black Consciousness and the growth of student protests Sobukwe is being looked to once again

How Can Man Die Better Benjamin Pogrund,2006 On 21 March 1960 Robert Mangaliso Sobukwe led a mass defiance of South Africa s pass laws He urged blacks to go to the nearest police station and demand arrest Police opened fire on a peaceful crowd in the township of Sharpeville and killed 69 people The protest changed the course of South Africa s history Afrikaner rule stiffened and black resistance went underground International opinion hardened against apartheid Sobukwe leader of the Pan Africanist Congress was jailed for three years for incitement At the end of his sentence the government fearful of his power rushed the so called Sobukwe Clause through Parliament to keep him in prison without a trial For the next six years Sobukwe was kept in solitary confinement on Robben Island the infamous apartheid prison near Cape Town On his release Sobukwe was banished to the town of Kimberley with very severe restrictions on his freedom He died there nine years later in February 1978 This book is the story of this South African hero the lonely prisoner on Robben Island It is also the story of the friendship between Robert Sobukwe and Benjamin Pogrund whose joint experiences and debates chart the course of a tyrannous regime and the growth of black resistance

Robert Sobukwe - How can Man Die Better Benjamin Pogrund,2015-06-26 I am greatly privileged to have known him and to have fallen under his spell His long imprisonment restriction and early death were a major tragedy for our land and the world ARCHBISHOP DESMOND TUTU on Sobukwe On 21 March 1960 Robert Mangaliso Sobukwe led a mass defiance of South Africa s pass laws He urged blacks to go to the nearest police station and demand arrest Police opened fire on a peaceful crowd in the township of Sharpeville and killed 69 people This protest changed the course of South Africa s history Sobukwe leader of the Pan Africanist Congress was jailed for three years for incitement At the end of his sentence the government rushed the so called Sobukwe Clause through Parliament to keep him in prison without a trial For the next six years Sobukwe was kept in solitary confinement on Robben Island On his release Sobukwe was banished to the town of Kimberley with very severe restrictions on his freedom until his death in February 1978 This book is the story of a South African hero and of the friendship between him and Benjamin Pogrund whose joint experiences and debates chart the course of a tyrannous regime and the growth of black resistance This new edition of How Can Man Die Better contains a number of previously unpublished photographs and an updated Epilogue

Robert Mangaliso Sobukwe Benjamin Pogrund,2019-10-16 A collection of thought provoking and moving essays on Robert Sobukwe commissioned and edited by his biographer and friend Benjamin Pogrund Sobukwe was a lecturer lawyer founding member and first president of the Pan Africanist Congress PAC and Robben Island prisoner The Land is Ours S. E. M. Pheko,1994 Apartheid's Insanity and Stupidity Mateu Nonyane,2021-06-16 The reader will find the book revealing with sporadic tragedy and humor It is based on the author s upbringing by struggling parents with many children Working as a journalist on various English language newspapers was equally dangerous Many of his colleagues were detained and tortured by the South African government for exposing the country s injustices to the outside world during student protests against apartheid laws that separated citizens on the basis of race skin color ethnicity and designated living areas under the Group Areas Act The author was forced to flee the country after he realized he had taken a big risk by allowing student leaders to hold nightly political meetings in his Soweto house while government Security Branch policemen were on the prowl He could not imagine himself giving evidence for the State against his detained colleagues That was one of the reasons he left the country and began life as a refugee away from his wife and seven year old daughter Overcoming the Oppressors Robert I. Rotberg,2023 How did Africans win their freedom in southern Africa And what did they do with their freedom in the several decades since each southern African country became free Overcoming the Oppressors discusses Black oppression succeeding white oppression indicates why and how corruption prevails in the region and explains why Botswana is exceptional in being non corrupt and well governed The present problems of each country are analyzed and we learn what their leaders are doing to uplift their peoples Lie on Your Wounds Robert Mangaliso Sobukwe,2019 This book comprising approximately 300 letters provides access to the voice of Robert Sobukwe via the single most poignant resource of Sobukwe s voice that exists his prison letters Not only do the letters evince Sobukwe s storytelling abilities they convey the complexity of a man who defied easy categorization More than this they are testimony both to the desolate conditions of his imprisonment and to Sobukwe s unbending commitment to the cause of African liberation The memory of Robert Mangaliso Sobukwe inspirational political leader and first President of the PanAfricanist Congress has been sadly neglected in postapartheid South Africa In 1960 Sobukwe led the AntiPass Protests which culminated in the Sharpeville Massacre which proved a crucial turning point in the eventual demise of apartheid Nevertheless Sobukwe a man once thought to hold greater promise for the liberation of South Africa than even Nelson Mandela has been consistently marginalised in histories of the liberation struggle. Jailed for nine years including a six-year period of near complete solitary confinement on Robben Island, Sobukwe was silenced throughout his life, a condition that has been extended into the post-apartheid present so much so that we can say that Sobukwe was better known during rather than after apartheid. Given Sobukwe's antagonistic relations both to white liberalism and to the African National Congress whom he felt had betrayed the principles of African Nationalism, it is unsurprising that he has been subjected to a consensus of forgetting. With the changing political climate of recent years, the decline of the African National Congress's hegemonic hold on power, the reemergence of Black Consciousness and Africanist political discourse, the growth of student protests, Sobukwe is being looked to once again.

Managing Vulnerability Richard C. Marback, 2012-09-30. In Managing Vulnerability, Richard C. Marback analyzes the tension surrounding the transition from apartheid to democracy in South Africa through a rhetorical lens. Marback studies the heart of South Africa's desire for reconciliation and contends that this goal could be achieved only through the creation of a language of vulnerability in which former enemies become open to the influence of each other, to the constraints of their respective circumstances, and to the prospects of a shared future. Through a series of informative case studies, Marback illustrates how the cultivation of openness and the management of vulnerability take shape through the circulation of artifacts, symbols, and texts that give empowering expression to virtues of connectedness over the temptations of individual autonomy. Marback discusses the construction and impact of the narrative tours of Robben Island, the silencing of Robert Sobukwe, the debates over a proposed Freedom Monument, a brief gesture of ubuntu from Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela to Eugene de Kock, and the transformation of the title character in the film adaptation of the 1980 novel Tsotsi. Ultimately, Marback contends that finding a means to manage vulnerability is both the immediate success of and the ongoing challenge to South African democracy and is indicative of the nature of rhetoric in democracies in general and in contemporary civic life.

The True History of Robben Island Must be Preserved S. E. M. Pheko, 2002. Texturing Difference Maurits van Bever Donker, 2024-12-03. This book situates the nuanced intervention of the Black Consciousness Movement in South Africa within the international conjuncture of anti-colonial thought and decolonization. It argues that the Black Consciousness Movement, in addition to its urgent political focus, should also be read as a philosophical intervention on the problem of Man that haunts the idea of race. As Steve Biko once famously said, apartheid will end, the real question is what comes after apartheid. Maurits van Bever Donker argues that the Black Consciousness Movement found intellectual and conceptual allies in the writings of Frantz Fanon and Aimé Césaire, tracing the problem of race as foundational to what is called the script of Man and in the process inventing the possibility of a new sense of Man, one with a more human face. While the work of figures like Biko, Fanon, and Césaire tends to be read as discrete political texts in a broader field of negritude and radical black thought, Texturing Difference explores what becomes possible when this network of texts is read from the perspective of South Africa. This intervention has significance not only for how race is approached and understood in South Africa but for the global workings of race in our time The Encyclopedia of Democracy Seymour Martin Lipset,1995 A comprehensive encyclopedia of 417 articles and an appendix containing the texts of twenty primary source documents covering the people politics and philosophies that shaped democracy from ancient Greece to the present Congressional Record United States. Congress,1978 In the Footsteps of the Masters Dickson Mungazi,2000-02-28 The height of colonial rule on the African continent saw two prominent religious leaders step to the fore Desmond Tutu in South Africa and Abel Muzorewa in Zimbabwe Both Tutu and Muzorewa believed that Africans could govern their own nations responsibly and effectively if only they were given the opportunity In expressing their religious views about the need for social justice each man borrowed from national traditions that had shaped policy of earlier church leaders Tutu and Muzorewa argued that the political development of Africans was essential to the security of the white settlers and that whites should seek the promotion of political development of Africans as a condition of that future security Desmond Tutu and Abel Muzorewa were both motivated by strong religious principles They disregarded the possible personal repercussions that they might suffer as a result of their efforts to alter the fundamental bases of their colonial governments Each man hoped to create a new national climate in which blacks and whites could cooperate to build a new nation Each played a part in eventual independence for Zimbabwe in 1980 and for South Africa in 1994 Mungazi s examination of their efforts reveals how individuals with strong convictions can make a difference in shaping the future of their nations New African ,1991 Darkest Before Dawn Derek Hook,Leswin Laubscher,Robert Sobukwe,2024-10 A collection of Robert Sobukwe s political writings speeches and court testimonies There are several accounts of Robert Sobukwe s courageous role in contesting South Africa s system of apartheid and of his incarceration on Robben Island after the Anti Pass Campaign that led to the tragic events of Sharpeville in March 1960 Far less attention has been paid to the years the leader of the Pan Africanist Congress spent in Kimberley between 1969 1978 after his release from the Island Darkest Before Dawn the follow up to Lie on Your Wounds The Prison Correspondence of Robert Mangaliso Sobukwe captures the story of the post prison years of Sobukwe s life This latest compilation complete with a biographical narrative by the editors and enriched with images from Sobukwe s life in this period of his life demonstrates the many challenges Sobukwe faced as well as his continued political resolve to fight for an end to apartheid This is captured in the many meetings he had in spite of banning orders and letters he exchanged with friends and admirers including the celebrated novelist Bessie Head whose letters to Sobukwe are published here for the first time Sobukwe continued to meet political allies such as Black Consciousness leader Steve Biko he pursued a legal career and played host to international visitors The portrait of Sobukwe that emerges is that of a highly ethical man a figure of dignity and fortitude and a wise elder whose commitment to the people of Africa and to the vision of Pan Africanism who remained undeterred despite his being forced to live in his final years under near impossible conditions To do justice to Sobukwe s legacy his intellectual contribution and his unflinching desire to pursue liberation for the African people we need to view his biography against the backdrop of his words Darkest Before Dawn includes a definitive collection of his political writings speeches unpublished court testimonies interviews with Gail Gerhart and Joe Thloloe and expansive annotations by the compilers The book ends with a reflective essay which highlights the ongoing pertinence of Sobukwe's legacy Encyclopedia of World Biography Gale Research Inc,1998 Presents brief biographical sketches which provide vital statistics as well as information on the importance of the person listed Apartheid's Genesis, 1935-1962 P. L. Bonner,Peter Delius,Peter Nicholas St. Martin Delius,Deborah Posel,1993 Focusing on the period 1935-1962 this collection explores the dynamics which moulded apartheid Processes of migrancy and urbanisation engendered a myriad of public and private struggles which shaped the terrain traversed by both African and Afrikaner nationalisms Many of apartheid's central elements grew out of the state's responses to the intensifying contradictions of industrialisation urbanisation and popular struggle How Can Man Die Better? Benjamin Pogrund,1997-01-01
