South African Truth Commission:

    The South African Truth Commission Dorothy C. Shea,2000 In the latter half of the 1990s South Africa s Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC offered the country the chance to build a better future by facing up to its past Amid saturation media coverage victims of human rights abuses told their harrowing stories and perpetrators confessed to horrendous acts Meanwhile the commissioners grappled with decisions that would not only apportion responsibility and grant or deny amnesty but also have a profound political and social impact To this highly charged controversial subject Dorothy Shea brings a rare combination of objectivity thoroughness and a firm grasp of both the principles and the political interests at stake She begins by investigating the origins of the TRC in South Africa s transition from apartheid to democracy and she examines the extent to which it learned from the experiences of earlier Latin American commissions Then she focuses on how the politics of the TRC were played out in issues such as amnesty reparations and prosecutions Her report on the TRC offers a generally positive assessment and explains not only how South Africa measured up but also why Finally Shea draws lessons from the TRC experience that may help to inform future efforts to shape and establish truth commissions in other transitional societies   Performing South Africa's Truth Commission Catherine M. Cole,2010 Spectacles of legality performance transitional justice and the law Justice in transition political trials 1956 1964 Witnessing and interpreting testimony live present public and speaking in many tongues Eyes and ears of the nation television and the implicated witness Dragons in the living room truth and reconciliation in repertoire 2006 Conclusion Afterword what truth meant to the TRC

    The Limits of Transition: The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission 20 Years on Mia Swart,Karin van Marle,2017-08-28 The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission was a noble attempt to begin to address the continuing traumatic legacy of Apartheid This interdisciplinary collection critiques the work of the TRC 20 years since its establishment Taking the paralysing political and social crises of the mid 1990s in South Africa as starting point the book contains a collection of responses to the TRC that considers the notions of crisis judgment and social justice It asks whether the current political and social crises in South Africa are linked to the country s post apartheid transitional mechanisms specifically the TRC The fact that the material conditions of the lives of many Apartheid victims have not improved forms a major theme of the book Collectively the book considers the unfinished business of the TRC   The South African Truth Commission Kenneth Christie,2000 Over the last 30 years many political transitions from authoritarian regimes and dictatorial political systems have been accompanied by Truth Commissions Since 1974 there have been over 20 of these Commissions established in countries as diverse as Argentina Chile Uruguay Bolivia El Salvador Ethiopia the Philippines and Germany among others Perhaps the most important Truth Commission of our time is the South African one which also seeks to act as a mechanism for reconciliation in a divided society The South African conflict was extremely long and violent its victims suffered traumatic experiences and in part one of the Commission functions is to allow their story to be told This book tries to examine the Truth Commission in South Africa and the issues that surround it assessing different versions of the South African past and the complex negotiations leading to the establishment of the Commission and the complex politics of amnesty justice and nation building   Truth and Reconciliation in South Africa Hugo van der Merwe,Audrey R. Chapman,2008-02 Of the truth commissions to date the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC has most effectively captured public attention throughout the world and provided the model for succeeding bodies Although other truth commissions had preceded its establishment the TRC had a far more expansive mandate to go beyond truth finding to promote national unity and reconciliation to facilitate the granting of amnesty to those who made full factual disclosure to restore the human and civil dignity of victims by providing them an opportunity to tell their own stories and to make recommendations to the president on measures to prevent future human rights violations   Looking Back, Reaching Forward Charles Villa-Vincencio,Wilhelm Verwoerd,2000-02-15 The Truth and Reconciliation Commission chaired by Archbishop Desmond Tutu is widely recognized as a defining experience in South Africa s transition to democratic and non racial rule This anthology uniquely combining contributions by some of the Commissioners and their staff those who bore witness and scholars reviews the context in which the TRC did its work   South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation Commission Muhammed Haron,2009 The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission An Annotated Bibliography is a much needed reference work for those who are studying and pursuing the outcomes of Truth Commissions around the world However it is also a valuable tool for all researchers from diverse disciplines For example those specialising in the fields of sociology political science and literature will find material that appeals and is relevant to their areas of research There is little doubt that students and researchers pursuing courses such as Conflict Resolution Good Governance and International Relations would find this compilation more than beneficial since it covers not only an assortment of themes but it also includes ingenious cartoons by the famous Zapiro and memorable photographs by George Hallet In addition the compiler also inserted a select number of poems that dealt with the issues and themes related to the TRC process

     Reconciliation Discourse Annelies Verdoolaege,2008 This volume is a research monograph analysing the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC from an ethnographic linguistic point of view The central proposition of this book is that the TRC can be regarded as a mechanism that leads to the hegemony of specific discourses thus excercising power The analysis illustrates how through a certain type of reconciliation discourse constructed at the TRC hearings a reconciliation oriented reality took shape in post TRC South Africa Basically the study points to the long term implications a truth commission can exert on a traumatised post conflict society The book is unique on several levels TRC discourse is explored in depth on the basis of personal stories from TRC testifiers a combination of Poststructuralist and Critical Discourse Analysis approaches form the theoretical foundations and an extensive bibliography provides an impressive database of TRC publications   Commissioning the Past Deborah Posel,Graeme Simpson,2002 This work includes the uncensored voices of survivors of human rights abuses who testified before South Africa s Truth and Reconcilation Commission and in whose name the hearings were undertaken The views of three groups with different perspectives are reported academic scholars commissioners and researchers and people who related stories of victimization perpetrated on themselves or a family member The emerging dialogue between outsiders and insiders and between national local and individual experiences is a distinguishing feature of the book Setting Up a Truth Commission in the Middle of the Conflict Natalia Maria Springer,2001 The South African Truth Commission Kenneth Christie,2000-01-01 The South African Truth Commission assesses different versions of the South African past the complex negotiations leading to the establishment of the Commission and the complex politics of amnesty justice and nation building Report of the Task Force on the Establishment of a Truth, Justice, and Reconciliation Commission Kenya. Task Force on the Establishment of a Truth, Justice and Reconciliation Commission,2003 Truth And Lies Jillian Edelstein,2014-05-22 The Truth and Reconciliation Commission was established to investigate more than thirty years of human rights violations under apartheid Jillian Edelstein returned to her native South Africa to photograph the work of this committee and was present at some of the most important hearings including that of Winnie Mandela In Truth and Lies portraits of those who testified are accompanied by their stories The result is a powerful and moving record of the atrocities committed under apartheid and the fight to make the truth known African Truth Commissions and Transitional Justice John Perry,T. Debey Sayndee,2015-04-22 African Truth Commissions and Transitional Justice examines the functioning of truth commissions in Africa outlining the lessons learned the best practices and the successes and failures of seven African truth commissions Its introduction and conclusion then work further to place truth commissions within the growing academic field of transitional justice The first African truth commission was convened by the despot Idi Amin for reasons unrelated to the defense of human rights but despite this ambiguous beginning other African truth commissions have done important work The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission of 1996 has become the gold standard for future truth commissions not only in Africa but throughout the world it unearthed much truth about the Apartheid era abuse of human rights and took vital first steps towards restorative justice in the Republic Each truth commission is distinctive However although much has been written about South Africa s truth commissions much less is known about the other six studied in this book and an attentive reader will notice the suggestive patterns which emerge Truth and Reconciliation in South Africa Lyn S. Graybill,2002 Graybill mind and human interaction U of Virginia provides students not only the facts about the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission but also the broader context in which it operated She asks whether it led to reconciliation and healing what criteria were used to decide whether to pardon or punish whether politics necessitated the compromise and other questions Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Demand for Establishment of Truth Comission in Croatia for War-period 1991 - 1995 Dijana Erakovic,2010-07 Seminar paper from the year 2010 in the subject Politics Miscellaneous Central European University Budapest course Transitional justice the war in Ex Yugoslav area language English abstract P Hayner recommends truth commission establishment after the conflict but in the case of Croatia I believe that this is the best period for it although 15 years after because tensions are decreased criminal justice ICTY failed in reconciliation of two groups diplomatic relations between Croatia and Serbia are on satisfactory level number of returned Serbs is also sufficient although still too high number of Croatian Serbs is abroad to have a successful dialogue through truth commission s work Same author permits that every truth commission can be unique in a sense to be adjusted to specific context of particular country In case of Croatia I think truth commission should be common project with Serbia because Serbia is partly responsible directly for the conflict through its paramilitary units and organized criminal groups crimes direct conflict on the border in Eastern Slavonia and ideological manipulation with Croatian Serbs Serbia also has the highest number of refugees from Croatia One of the aims of truth commission should be reconciliation with Serbia but the most important aim should be reconciliation between Croats and Croatian Serbs so in that respect my idea differs from REKOM initiative which wants to cover three ex Yugoslav republics Related with Dimitrijevic s idea I agree that Serbia should establish a new truth commission but in respect to Croatian Serbian conflict Serbia does not need to deal with it alone For now I have doubts should B H be included for now because that state has serious internal cleavages and I perceive it as a time bomb I think that one of the main messages to Croatian Serbs and to both nations Serbians and Croats should be that Croatia is their native land in which they lived for centuries where t The Truth Commission and Its Burdens : B Perpetrator Findings and Their Consequences Andre du toit,2024 Report on the National Conference on Truth, Justice and Reconciliation Commission for Kenya ,2003 Carrots and Sticks Jeremy Sarkin,Jeremy Sarkin-Hughes,2004 This book is about the South African amnesty process Many of the most well known cases are investigated The content of many of the amnesty decisions are investigated to see how the Amnesty Committee applied the amnesty law and whether the decisions were fair and consistent The Scholar ,2002
