been effected in finance structure governance and curricula At the same time there has been a renewed and widespread appreciation for the positive aspects of the Soviet legacy in schooling The essays presented here compare current educational reform to reforms of the past analyze it in a broader cultural political and social context and study the shifts that have occurred at the different levels of schooling from political decision making and changes in school administration to the rewriting textbooks and teachers everyday problems The authors are both Russian educators who have played a leading role in implementation of the reform and Western scholars who have been studying it from its very early stages Together they formulate an intricate but cohesive picture which is in keeping with the complex nature of the reform itself Contributors Kara Brown Indiana University Ben Eklof Indiana University Isak D Froumin World Bank Moscow Larry E Holmes University of South Alabama Igor Ionov Russian History Institute of the Russian Academy of Sciences Viacheslav Karpov Elena Lisovskaya Western Michigan University Vera Kaplan Tel Aviv University Stephen T Kerr University of Washington James Muckle University of Nottingham Nadya Peterson Hunter College Scott Seregny Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis Alexander Shevyrev Moscow State University Janet G Vaillant Harvard University
