Bulletin ... Grand Rapids Public Library (Grand Rapids, Mich.),1911      Bulletin of the Grand Rapids Public Library,1910      Man and the Incarnation Gustaf Wingren,2004-09-10 Wingren claims that in a theologian like Irenaeus there are parts of the Biblical message which are interpreted in greater clarity and power than in any later period of Christian thought As such this book deserves the sympathetic attention of theologians both Catholic and Protestant To summarize it is nearly impossible in view of the richness and fullness of the discussion We may say however that for Irenaeus God made man for growth yet man was defeated by that Satan whom God also created The Son of God served to recapitulate and reverse Adam's fall and to restore humanity's lost God-given potentiality for growth In the Church through word and sacrament Christ's benefits are made available to all In the final consummation when man becomes like God he is in actual fact becoming man God and man are not fundamentally in opposition to one another The only thing to add about Wingren's book is that it must be read There are very few studies of classical Christian theology which come close to it in clarity completeness or convincing power      The life of our Lord upon the earth Samuel J.
