Reserve Grace Watchman Nee,1998-02 Their Rock Is Not Like Our Rock Daniel Strange,2015-02-03 The reality of the West's post Christendom multiethnic multicultural context has meant that more than ever Christians face questions posed not simply by the existence of other religions but also by their apparent flourishing. If secularization is alive and well then so too is society's sacralization. Hence a theology of religions is arguably the most significant concern confronting Christian mission and apologetics in the twenty first century. There has been little evangelical theology offering a detailed comprehensive and biblically faithful analysis not only of the question of salvation but also questions of truth, the nature and history of human religiosity and a host of other issues pertaining to Christian apologetics and contextualization amid religious pluralism. In Their Rock is Not Like Our Rock lecturer and vice principal of Oak Hill College in London Daniel Strange explores these issues and offers the beginning of a theology of other religions The Gospel, Freedom, and the Sacraments Barry Charles Newman,2016-01-07 To be baptized particularly as an adult indicating a radical change from the self directed life to the life to be lived under the lordship of Jesus Christ must be one of the most dramatic experiences available to us. To take part in the Lord's Supper remembering his death for us must be one of the most moving services in which we could ever participate. But are these ceremonies obligatory for the believer? Did Jesus explicitly or implicitly make them mandatory? Does it not seem somewhat strange that the gospel by which we are freed from the Law of Moses demands that we abide by two new ceremonial laws? However greatly they differed from one another did the reformers go far enough in examining the Scriptures to see what they did indeed say about such ceremonies? Have we written back into our understanding of Scripture that so much underlies our present beliefs and practices? Does an examination of what the early fathers thought help or hinder us in our search for the truth History of Scottish Philosophy Alexander Broadie,2008-12-15 Winner of the Saltire Society Scottish History Book of the Year 2009 Shortlisted for the Saltire Society Scottish Research Book of the Year 2009 This is the first ever account of the full 700 year old Scottish philosophical tradition. The book focuses on a number of philosophers in the period from the later 13th century until the mid 20th and attends especially to some brilliantly original texts. The book also indicates ways in which philosophy has been intimately related to other aspects of Scotland's culture. Among the greatest philosophers that Scotland has produced are John Duns Scotus, Francis Hutcheson, David Hume, Adam Smith and Thomas Reid. But there were many other fine even brilliant philosophers who are less highly regarded if they are noticed at all such as John Mair, George Lokert, Frederick Ferrier, Andrew Seth Norman, Kemp Smith and John Macmurray. All these thinkers and many others are discussed in these pages. This clearly written and approachable book gives us a strong sense of the Scottish philosophical tradition The Church Teacher's Manual of Christian Instruction. Being the Church Catechism expanded and explained, etc Michael Ferree Sadler,1872 Richard Baxter's Catholick Theologie : Plain, Pure, Peaceable : for Pacification of the Dogmatical Word-warriours, ... Richard Baxter,1675 Jonathan Edwards and Deification James R. Salladin,2022-02-01 The language of deification or participation in the divine nature as a way to understand salvation often sounds strange to Western Christians But perhaps Western theologies have more in common with theosis that we thought James Salladin considers the role of deification in the theology of Jonathan Edwards exploring how Edwards s soteriology compares with the broader Reformed tradition
