The Island Self

Michal Rosen-Zvi

The Island Self:

Islands, Identity and the Literary Imagination Elizabeth McMahon, 2016-07-09 Australia is the planet's sole island continent. This book argues that the uniqueness of this geography has shaped Australian history and culture including its literature. Further, it shows how the fluctuating definition of the island continent throws new light on the relationship between islands and continents in the mapping of modernity. The book links the historical and geographical conditions of islands with their potent role in the imaginary of European colonisation. It prisms apart the tangled web of geography, fantasy, desire, and writing that has framed the Western understanding of islands, their real and material conditions, and their symbolic resonance from antiquity into globalised modernity. The book also traces how this spatial imaginary has shaped the modern man who is imagined as being the island's natural inhabitant or mirror. Importantly, the book challenges these habits of thought by their relocation within larger topological and imaginary visions from islanders themselves.

We Do Stan Tatkin, PsyD, MFT, 2018-12-01 If you and your prospective partner adopt the principles and skills I describe here, your relationship will be successful, not just for starters but for the long run. An indispensable guide for any couple ready to set the foundation for a loving and lasting union. Committing fully to a loving partnership, as we can be one of the most beautiful and fulfilling experiences you'll ever have. Yet, as anyone in a long-term relationship will tell you, it can also be one of the most challenging. Almost half of all first marriages end in divorce, and chances go down from there. So, how do you beat the odds? All successful long-term relationships are secure relationships, writes psychotherapist Stan Tatkin. You and your partner take care of each other in a way that ensures you both feel safe, protected, accepted, and secure at all times. In We Do, Tatkin provides a groundbreaking guide for couples. You'll figure out whether you and your partner are right for each other in the long term, and if so, give your relationship a strong foundation so you can enjoy a secure and lasting love. Highlights include: Create a shared vision for your relationship, the key to a strong foundation. It's all about prevention: learn tools and techniques for preventing problems before they occur. Understand how to work with the psychological and biological influences in your relationship: neuroscience, arousal regulation, attachment theory, and more. Numerous case studies with helpful examples of healthy and unhealthy interactions, sample dialogues, and reflections. Dozens of exercises: the newlywed game, reading facial expressions, and many more fun and serious practices to develop intimacy and security. Handling conflict: how to broker win-win outcomes. Build a loving relationship that helps you thrive and grow as both individuals and a couple. Common interests, physical attraction, shared values, and good communication skills are the factors most commonly thought to indicate a good partnership. Yet, surprisingly, current research reveals that these are only a small part of what makes for a healthy marriage. Much more important are psychological and biological influences. With We Do, you'll learn to navigate these elements and more, giving your relationship the best possible chance to succeed.

Managing, Marketing, and Maintaining Maritime and Coastal Tourism Morais de Brito, Mónica, Dias, Alvaro, Patuleia, Mafalda, 2019-11-29 The extraordinary beauty, cultural wealth, and diversity of EU's coastal areas have designated them as one of the preferred destinations for many holiday goers. The numerous businesses that operate in these heavily traveled areas have to struggle with other similarly minded companies and with providing sustainable practices for the people and surrounding area. Managing Marketing and Maintaining Maritime and Coastal Tourism is a pivotal reference source that provides vital material on the application of multidisciplinary and interdisciplinarity logic surrounding sea tourism. While highlighting topics such as destination marketing, event management and global business, this publication explores the dynamic capabilities and the methods of overall management of hospitality by the sea. This book is ideally designed for marketers, advertisers, tour directors, cruise directors, travel agents, port managers, coastal cities managers, event coordinators, academics, students, researchers, policymakers, public managers and tourism entrepreneurs.

The Rock Rabbit and the Rainbow Laurens Van der Post, 1998. Sir Laurens van der Post, author, film maker, storyteller of world wide renown, soldier, prisoner of war, political advisor to heads of state, humanitarian explorer, conservationist. The list goes on and on. His extraordinary curiosity, his love for the small and the great and his tremendous feeling and concern for his surroundings and all that they included set him travelling the lands and the waters of the world a messenger in search of meaning. He touched and inspired many along the way, some of whom are to be found in the pages of this book. A true man of his time, Sir Laurens was born in 1906 in the interior of South Africa, served in the British forces during World War II including three and a half years in Japanese captivity and lived and worked since that time in London where he died just after celebrating his 90th birthday in December 1996. The Rock Rabbit and The Rainbow was originally conceived as a Festschrift or gift collection of writings for Sir Laurens by several of his friends and then evolved into its present form which includes numerous original contributions by Sir Laurens himself.

Tourism, Magic and Modernity David Picard, 2011-09-01. Drawing from extended fieldwork in La Réunion in the Indian Ocean, the author suggests an innovative re-reading of different concepts of magic that emerge in the global cultural economics of tourism. Following the making and unmaking of the tropical island tourism destination of La Réunion, he demonstrates how destinations are transformed into magical pleasure gardens in which human life is cultivated for tourist consumption. Like a gardener would cultivate flowers, local development, policy, nature conservation and museum initiatives dramatise local social life so as to evoke modernist paradigms of time, beauty and nature. Islanders who live in this human garden are thus placed in the ambivalent role of human flowers, embodying ideas of authenticity and biblical innocence but also of history and social life in perpetual creolisation.

The Other Taiwan, 1945-92 Murray A. Rubinstein, 2016-09-16. Examines the effects of the socio-economic post-war transformation on Taiwan's political system, environment, religious structures, the relationships between the sexes and the different ethnic populations. A complex revisionist portrait of the country emerges.
