The Heir to Grand-Pré John Frederic Herbin, 1907 The moveless helm needs no ruling hand Because there is no wind awake to fill The sail that idles in the sun Well Len how is she making now Falling a little sir No sign of wind yet Not a whiff How long before we will have to anchor About an hour more ebb sir On this report the bare head which had been slightly raised while the interrogation was taking place fell back into the hollow it had made for itself on an old sail which was both couch and pillow A well worn sporting coat lay between the rough cloth and the golden brown hair and the summer seasoned skin of a man s face fresh and full of the health of youth The figure of the young man settled into a more comfortable position and a light cloud of smoke rose from his pipe into the moveless air He lay on the roof of the cabin in the shadow of the mainsail now hanging out of use from the mast The sky was hazy and cloudless and the whole sheet of water was white as burnished silver
