Braby's Commercial Directory of South, East and Central Africa, 1975 Includes South Africa Rhodesia Zambia Malawi South West Africa Mocambique Angola Swaziland Botswana and Lesotho Transnational Chinese Diaspora in Southeast Asia Yos Santasombat, 2022-10-13 This book examines contemporary Chinese transnational mobile practices with special focuses on the ethnographic exploration of the lives experiences views and narratives of the Chinese mobile subjects in three ASEAN countries Malaysia Singapore and Thailand and their interactions with the ethnic Chinese communities in these countries This book is based on recent and updated original ethnographic research carried out by leading scholars in China and Southeast Asia The work addresses questions of integration and social embeddedness interrogating the possibility of whether the transnational Chinese diaspora can be simultaneously embedded into two or more nation states and geopolitical spheres It contends that in moving in the transnational space the Chinese diaspora may experience a strong yearning for a cultural home that may not be in one space for bicultural or multicultural diaspora It also asks whether the transnational Chinese diaspora is motivated to negotiate cultural membership and social belonging in a new country Shedding new light on the ways in which the transnational diaspora negotiates cultural membership to adapt to situational requirements this volume is relevant to scholars researching in China studies anthropology international relations and in Asian Southeast and East Asian regional studies A History of Southeast Asia Anthony Reid, 2015-03-03 2016 PROSE Award Honorable Mention for Textbook in the Humanities A History of Southeast Asia Critical Crossroads presents a comprehensive history of Southeast Asia from our earliest knowledge of its civilizations and religious patterns up to the present day Incorporates environmental social economic and gender issues to tell a multi dimensional story of Southeast Asian history from earliest times to the present Argues that while the region remains a highly diverse mix of religions ethnicities and political systems it demands more attention for how it manages such diversity while being receptive to new ideas and technologies Demonstrates how Southeast Asia can offer alternatives to state centric models of history more broadly Part of The Blackwell History of the World Series The goal of this ambitious series is to provide an accessible source of knowledge about the entire human past for every curious person in every part of the world It will comprise some two dozen volumes of which some provide synoptic views of the history of particular regions while others consider the world as a whole during a particular period of time The volumes are narrative in form giving balanced attention to social and cultural history in the broadest sense as well as to institutional development and political change Each provides a systematic account of a very large subject but they are also both imaginative and interpretative The Series is intended to be accessible to the widest possible readership and the accessibility of its volumes is matched by the style of presentation and production Market, 1997

Undernutrition in the Philippines Nkosinathi V. N. Mbuya, Gabriel Demombynes, Sharon Faye A. Piza, Ann Jillian V. Adona, 2021-05-25 For nearly 30 years the rates of both wasting and stunting in the Philippines have been nearly flat For 2019 the rate of stunting among children under five years of age 28.8 percent was only slightly lower than in 2008 32 percent the prevalence of underweight in 2019 was 19 percent and that of wasting was 6 percent Based on the World Health Organization's classification of undernutrition rates the stunting prevalence of children in the Philippines is of very high public health significance The Philippines 29 percent stunting rate places it fifth among countries in the East Asia and Pacific region and among the top 10 countries globally The Philippines high levels of childhood undernutrition can lead to a staggering loss of the country's human and economic potential The burden on the Philippines economy brought by childhood undernutrition was estimated at US 4.4 billion or 1.5 percent of the country's GDP in 2015 Undernutrition robs Filipino children of their chance at a bright future When viewed through the lens of the World Bank's Human Capital Index HCI the country's 2020 HCI score of 0.52 predicts that the future productivity of children born today will be 48 percent below what they might achieve if they were to enjoy complete education and full health Undernutrition in the Philippines Scale Scope and Opportunities for Nutrition Policy and Programming presents a comprehensive analytical work on this topic It provides evidence of why it is critical that the government of the Philippines prioritize tackling this persistent challenge The report assesses the determinants and causes of childhood undernutrition and reviews current policies and programs directed at addressing this problem Based on these analyses the report provides recommendations of how national policies and programs can be strengthened to reduce the high rates of undernutrition in the country It sets out to inform the debate on the causes and potential solutions of undernutrition while identifying high priority policies and policy commitments for action
