Steel Town:

Homestead William Serrin,1992 Examines the business labor and human history of Homestead Pennsylvania the heart of the American steel industry Steel Town Erik Carl Eklund,2002 Using archival records oral history interviews and company documents this book charts the relationship between economic change and the human experience of that change in Port Kembla Australia an area seen by many Australians as a polluted wasteland Also explored are industrial society and the impact of economic decline and deindustrialization drawing together themes of migration gender class and identity

Steeltown Charles Rumford Walker,1950 Steeltown U.S.A. Sherry Lee Linkon,John Russo,2002-06-10 Once the symbol of a robust steel industry and blue collar economy Youngstown Ohio and its famous Jeannette Blast Furnace have become key icons in the tragic tale of American deindustrialization Sherry Lee Linkon and John Russo examine the inevitable tension between those discordant visions which continue to exert great power over Steeltown s citizens as they struggle to redefine their lives When the Jenny was shut down in 1978 50 000 Youngstown workers lost their jobs cutting the heart out of the local economy Even as the community organized a nationally recognized effort to save the mills the city was rocked by economic devastation runaway crime and mob scandal problems that persist twenty five years later In the midst of these struggles the Jenny remained standing as a proud symbol of the community s glory days still a dominant force in the construction of both individual and collective identities in Youngstown Focusing on stories and images that both reflect and perpetuate how Youngstown understands itself as a community Sherry Lee Linkon and John Russo have forged a historical and cultural study of the relationship between community memory work and conflict Drawing on written texts visual images sculptures films songs and interviews with people who have lived and worked in Youngstown the authors show the importance of memory in forming the collective identity of a place Steeltown U S A is a richly developed portrait of a place showing how images of the Jenny and of Youngstown have been used in national media and connecting these representations to the broader public conversation about work and place Bruce Springsteen s song Youngstown the book Journey to Nowhere and other pop culture artifacts have helped make Youngstown the symbolic epicenter of American deindustrialization And while many people see the need to get over the past and on with the future in rushing to erase the difficult parts of Youngstown s history they might also forget the powerful events that made the city so important such as the struggles for economic and social justice that improved the lives of steelworkers This multifaceted study of the meaning of work and place in one community pointedly depicts the relationships among economic development media representations and community life As we see how people s faith in the value of their work dwindled away in Youngstown their stories can help us understand not only how the meaning of work has changed but also why the changing meaning of work matters Steeltown Blues Richard Mousseau,2017-04-12 Only two boys from Steeltown have survived The past has affected their lives Living and working in a steel mill town is the cause of past and future events in their lives Salami is unable to settle down to a married life and is too eager to follow the free spirit of his friend Boo Leaving town seems to be their only way out an escape To escape from what or whom There are those who wish to even up past scores They are willing to follow to extremes in order to inflict terror and pain on Salami and Boo To what end is in store for two friends wishing only to escape the confines of working in a steel mill Will they be able to escape those Steeltown Blues Quotes My hopes for the boys were dashed during the reading of the last few pages I felt hurt and angry when I read about Boo and Salami boys I enjoyed following page after page Through the whole book I felt as if I were travelling and living the excitement and disappointments of life alongside of the boys

The Story of a Steel Town [Monessen, Pa.]. Bessie Cecilia Preston,1925 English Nationalism and its Ghost Towns Luke Telford,2022-05-18 In order to understand today s nationalism we need to address the historical decline of working class communities the sense of loss brought by deindustrialisation and how working class people have been denied a voice in society and politics Discontent has manifested strongly in these deprived post industrial areas often branded as communities that have been left behind under neoliberal globalisation Whilst more and more people are voicing their discontent with a system that fails to provide social security and economic stability many researchers have branded them merely as racists xenophobes and ill educated Although prejudices are likely to play a part in all political outcomes today s dissatisfaction across the West cannot be reduced to mere emotion and intolerance This book therefore utilises on the ground research with working class individuals in a Leave voting locale in Britain exploring their discontent with politicians the Labour Party the European Union immigration refugees and the prolonged calls for a second referendum It situates this sentiment towards society and politics within the decline of capitalism s post war era and the loss of well paid industrial jobs increase in non unionised service employment and the hollowing out of community spirit

Beyond Belief Srirupa Roy,2007-05-28 DIVExamines the formation of the nation state in postcolonial India how it worked to create an identity for itself to what extent it succeeded and what may be the prospects for unity in a widely diverse country div

Homestead Curtis Miner,1989 Steeltown James Grady,1989 Though brought in from the outside to fight the corruption and dishonesty afflicting the city Jackson Cain is discovered to be a native of Steeltown and many suspect he has some old scores to settle

Steel Town Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania. Museum Program Department,1988 Steel Town ,2021 In 1977 Stephen Shore travelled across New York state Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio an area in the midst of industrial decline that would eventually be known as the Rust Belt Shore met steelworkers who had been thrown out of work by plant closures and photographed their suddenly fragile world deserted factories lonely bars dwindling high streets and lovingly decorated homes Across these images a prosperous middle America is seen teetering on the precipice of disastrous decline Hope and despair alike lurk restlessly behind the surfaces of shop fronts domestic interiors and the fraught expressions of those who confront Shore s 4x5 view camera Originally commissioned as an extended photographic report for Fortune Magazine in the vein of Walker Evans Shore s multifaceted investigation has only gained political salience in the intervening years Shore's subjects including workers union leaders and family members had voted for Jimmy Carter the year preceding his visit now he found them disillusioned with the new president fated to leave behind the Democratic party and become the Reagan Democrats Through unfailingly engrossing images by one of the world's acknowledged masters Steel Town provides an immersive portrait of a time and place whose significance to our own is ever more urgent With a text by Helen C Epstein author translator and professor of human rights and public health The Encyclopaedia Britannica Thomas Spencer Baynes,1903 Steel Town Jonah Winter,2008-05-20 In Steel Town it's always dark In Steel Town it's always raining In Steel Town the mills blaze all day and all night making steel and even more steel to be shipped over the Magic Mountains down the Pitch Black River and far far away The men who work in the mills work as hard as the machines that make the steel never stopping But when the men go home at night a different side of Steel Town emerges one filled with music and neighbors pierogies and spaghetti churches and front porches This gritty yet poetic world is brought to life through Jonah Winter's lyrical rhythmic text and Terry Widener's luscious nocturnal illustrations whose massive figures glow with the few lights that shine through this darkness This is a portrait of an imaginary town derived from the very real American steel towns of the 1930s when the sky was often black as night all day and the cavernous mills belched out fire and smoke Here is a journey to a town that time has not forgotten just misplaced Steel Town McClure's Magazine ,1917 Harrisburg and Dauphin County George Patterson Donehoo,1925 Homestead Curtis Miner,1989 Report United States Geographic Board,1892 Power ,1920 The Judge ,1922
