D. G. Leahy and the Thinking Now Occurring Lissa McCullough, Elliot R. Wolfson, 2021-09-01. This book offers a critical introduction to the work of American philosopher D. G. Leahy (1937-2014). Leahy's fundamental thinking can be characterized as an absolute creativity in which all creating is live, a happening occurring now that manifests a supersaturated polyontological actuality that is essentially created by the logic that characterizes it. Leahy leaves behind the categorial presuppositions of modern thought, eclipsing both Cartesian and Hegelian subjectivities and introducing instead an essentially new form of thinking founded in a nondual logic of creation. The new thinking delineates the absolute unicity of existence as a creative interactivity beyond all traditional dichotomies such as one vs. many, unity vs. plurality, identity vs. change, a fully digitized actuality that is nothing but newness, which inherently implies nothing but change. Through this new form of thinking, change itself is revealed to be the very essence of reality and mind. Any reader looking for a quantum leap beyond the thrall of modern and postmodern fixations is invited to hear and apprehend this new thinking that refuses to be conditioned by paradigms, categories, species, genera, walls, bridges, boundaries, or abstractions, an essentially free thinking that embodies creative novelty itself.

The Unaccommodated Calvin: Studies in the Foundation of a Theological Tradition Richard A. Muller, P. J. Zondervan, Professor of Historical Theology, Calvin Theological Seminary, 2000-01-31. This book attempts to understand Calvin in his 16th-century context with attention to continuities and discontinuities between his thought and that of his predecessors, contemporaries, and successors. Muller pays particular attention to the interplay between theological and philosophical themes common to Calvin and the medieval doctors and to developments in rhetoric and method associated with humanism
