The Abandoned Doll:

The Abandoned Doll Laurence Meynell, 1960 The Abandoned Doll Alfonso Sastre, 1996 The Abandoned Doll.
Young Billy Tell. Translated by Carys Evans-Corrales Alfonso Sastre, 1996 Handbook of Polish, Czech, and Slovak Holocaust Fiction Elisa-Maria Hiemer, Jiří Holý, Agata Firlej, Hana Nichtburgerová, 2021-06-21 The Handbook of Polish Czech and Slovak Holocaust Fiction aims to increase the visibility and show the versatility of works from East Central European countries It is the first encyclopedic work to bridge the gap between the literary production of countries that are considered to be main sites of the Holocaust and their recognition in international academic and public discourse It contains over 100 entries offering not only facts about the content and motifs but also pointing out the characteristic fictional features of each work and its meaning for academic discourse and wider reception in the country of origin and abroad The publication will appeal to the academic and broader public interested in the representation of the Holocaust anti-Semitism and World War II in literature and the arts Besides prose it also considers poetry and theatrical plays from 1943 through 2018 An introduction to the historical events and cultural developments in Poland Czechoslovakia Czech and Slovak Republic and their impact on the artistic output helps to contextualise the motif changes and fictional strategies that authors have been applying for decades The publication is the result of long term scholarly cooperation of specialists from four countries and several dozen academic centres Elena Ferrante as World Literature Stiliana Milkova Rousseva, 2021-01-14 A model of academic praxis Public Books Elena Ferrante as World Literature is the first English language monograph on Italian writer Elena Ferrante whose four Neapolitan Novels 2011 2014 became a global phenomenon The book proposes that Ferrante constructs a theory of feminine experience which serves as the scaffolding for her own literary practice Drawing on the writer's entire textual corpus to date Stiliana Milkova examines the linguistic psychical and corporeal spatial realities that constitute the female subjects Ferrante has theorized At stake in Ferrante's theory practice is the articulation of a feminine subjectivity that emerges from the structures of patriarchal oppression and that resists bypasses or subverts these very structures Milkova's inquiry proceeds from Ferrante's theory of frantumaglia and smarginatura to explore mechanisms for controlling and containing the female body and mind forms of female authorship and creativity and corporeal negotiations of urban topography and patriarchal space Elena Ferrante as World Literature sets forth an interdisciplinary framework for understanding Ferrante's texts and offers an account of her literary and cultural significance today Memory and Fabrication in East Asian Visual Culture Dennitza Gabrakova, 2022-11-18 This book examines four contemporary sites of visual culture in East Asia through the poetic prism of the ruinous garden Framing destroyed discarded and displaced material objects within a rhetoric of development and relating this to the experience of ethnic national culture the book presents succinct analyses of visual works as well as cultural criticisms centered on space in metropolitan Japan and Hong Kong China These analyses are placed in dialog with approaches from postcolonial texts addressing development and fractures in representation Additionally the book suggests graphic design as a form of retrospective cultural thinking encompassing visual and invisible modernity as well as an attachment to disappearing space Offering a unique and thorough analysis of Japanese visual culture combining discussion on photography installation art and graphic design as well as integrating material from Hong Kong visual culture in discussions of identity this book will appeal to students and scholars of visual culture in East Asia environmental art and environmental humanities The Cambridge Companion to Literature and Psychoanalysis Vera J. Camden,2021-12-16 The Cambridge Companion to Literature and Psychoanalysis explains the link between literature and psychoanalysis for students critics and teachers It offers a twenty first century resource for defining and analyzing the psychoanalytic dimensions of human creativity in contemporary society Essays provide critical perspectives on selected canonical authors such as William Shakespeare Jane Austen Virginia Woolf Toni Morrison and James Baldwin It also offers analysis of contemporary literature of social sexual and political turmoil as well as newer forms such as film graphic narrative and autofiction Divided into five sections each offering the reader different subject areas to explore this volume shows how psychoanalytic approaches to literature can provide valuable methods of interpretation It will be a key resource for students teachers and researchers in the field of literature and psychoanalysis as well as literary theory
