The Islamic Impulse:

The Islamic Impulse Barbara Freyer Stowasser, 1987 The Impulse of Freedom in Islam John van Schaik, Christine Gruwez, 2013-12-01 The word Islam means surrender to God In our secular Western culture it is difficult to imagine what that means Among other things it indicates dependence and predestination But is this really the case Isn't this a superficial presumption Allah calls on human beings to surrender in freedom to their God Sura 96 Allah is merciful and forgiving At the same time however Allah is the all seeing one and the one who humbles In Islam free will and predestination have an uneasy relationship with each other but isn't this true for every religion In this collection of essays three authors discuss various aspects of the tension between freedom and predestination in Islam from the perspective of Rudolf Steiner's works This background enables them to throw sometimes surprising light on the freedom impulse of Islam It is the authors hope that this book may contribute to a more balanced view of Islam today This timely book offers interested non Muslims a rare opportunity to examine a frequently misunderstood aspect of one of the world's fastest growing religions The Islamic Review, 1915 Palestine and the Palestinians in the 21st Century Rochelle Davis, Mimi Kirk, 2013-10-07 Specialists on Palestinian politics history economics and society examine the continuities that bind the twentieth and twenty first centuries Recent developments in Palestinian political economic and social life have resulted in greater insecurity and diminishing confidence in Israel's willingness to abide by political agreements or the Palestinian leadership's ability to forge consensus This volume examines the legacies of the past century conditions of life in the present and the possibilities and constraints on prospects for peace and self determination in the future These historically grounded essays by leading scholars engage the issues that continue to shape Palestinian society such as economic development access to resources religious transformation and political movements The multidisciplinary essays in this volume portray a nation contemplating the possibility of stalemate hemmed in and searching for outlets to express its self determination Davis and Kirk divide the book thematically into three sections focusing broadly on colonialism and its effects politics and law in the Palestinian territories and the future of the Palestinian state and its place in the international system Publishers Weekly Muslim Women's Choices Camillia Fawzi El-Solh, Judy Mabro, 2020-08-21 This volume counters the prevailing Western views and stereotypes of Muslim women usually projected through male interpretations by presenting a cross cultural perspective of their experiences and choices in contemporary Muslim communities The main theme running through these papers is the manner in which Muslim women consciously as well as unconsciously manipulate religious belief to negotiate their gender roles within the context of their lives The Islamic Quarterly, 1983 Democratization in the Muslim World Frederic Volpi, Francesco Cavatorta, 2013-09-13 This book examines the role that political Islam plays in processes of democratization in the Muslim world detailing the political processes that facilitate the collective learning of democratic ways of solving the practical problems of those polities Democratization in the Muslim World represents an important contribution to the debate on democratization and political Islam that emphasises the synergetic effects and global reach of both Islamist and democratic politics It comes to terms with the problematic relationship between Islam and democracy in the uncertain post Cold War post 9 11 world order by highlighting the malleability of Islamic discourses and of its institutional resources as well as the diversity of the political strategies of incumbent regimes to remain in power It combines key theoretical issues and country specific studies of some of the most relevant Muslim polities of the post Cold War and post 9 11 era This text was previously published as a special issue of Democratization and will be of interest to students of Middle East politics governance democracy and human rights

The Muslim Brotherhood and the West Martyn Frampton,2018-02-19 The Muslim Brotherhood and the West is the first comprehensive history of the relationship between the world s largest Islamist movement and the Western powers that have dominated the Middle East for the past century Britain and the United States In the decades since the Brotherhood emerged in Egypt in the 1920s the movement s notion of the West has remained central to its worldview and a key driver of its behavior From its founding the Brotherhood stood opposed to the British Empire and Western cultural influence more broadly As British power gave way to American the Brotherhood s leaders committed to a vision of more authentic Islamic societies oscillated between anxiety or paranoia about the West and the need to engage with it Western officials for their part struggled to understand the Brotherhood unsure whether to shun the movement as one of dangerous fanatics or to embrace it as a moderate and inevitable part of the region s political scene Too often diplomats failed to view the movement on its own terms preferring to impose their own external agendas and obsessions Martyn Frampton reveals the history of this complex and charged relationship down to the eve of the Arab Spring Drawing on extensive archival research in London and Washington and the Brotherhood s writings in Arabic and English he provides the most authoritative assessment to date of a relationship that is both vital in itself and crucial to navigating one of the world s most turbulent regions

Conflict, Identity, and Reform in the Muslim World Daniel Brumberg,Dina Shehata,2009 Conflict Identity and Reform in the Muslim World highlights the challenges that escalating identity conflicts within Muslim majority states pose for both the Muslim world and for the West an issue that has received scant attention in policy and academic circles
