A PRAGMATIC STUDY OF LANGUAGE AND VALUATION. BROADUS NATHANIEL BUTLER, 1952

Intersections in Language Planning and Policy Jean Fornasiero, Sarah M. A. Reed, Rob Amery, Eric Bouvet, Kayoko Enomoto, Hui Ling Xu, 2020-09-28 This volume encompasses the range of issues encountered by language scholars who teach and research in departments of languages and cultures within the higher education system predominantly in Australia but touching other universities worldwide Related studies on language planning methodology or pedagogy have focused on one or more of these same issues but rarely on their totality Intersections as a metaphor running discreetly through the essays in this volume connects them all to a lived reality The field of languages and cultures as it is practised and reflected upon in Australian universities is essentially an interdisciplinary and interconnecting space one in which linguistic and disciplinary diversities meet and join forces rather than collide or disperse along different pathways The international and local studies featured here focus on language planning new pedagogies and language reclamation and link to meeting points and commonalities They show that language scholars are increasingly finding themselves on common ground as they tackle issues of policy and practice affecting their field whether within their institutions within the tertiary system or within the framework of government policy

Social Diversity within Multiliteracies Fenice B. Boyd, Cynthia H. Brock, 2014-12-05 Using a multiliteracies theoretical framework highlighting social diversity and multimodality as central in the process of meaning making this book examines literacy teaching and learning as embedded in cultural linguistic racial sexual and gendered contexts and explores ways to foster learning and achievement for diverse students in various settings Attending simultaneously to topics around two overarching and interrelated themes languages and language variations and cultures ethnicities and identities the chapter authors examine the roles that multiliteracies play in students lives in and out of classrooms In Part I readers are asked to examine beliefs and dispositions as related to different languages language varieties cultures ethnicities and identities Part II engages readers in examining classroom and community practices related to different languages and language varieties cultures ethnicities and identities
