The Boy's Own Book William Clarke, 1885 The Unhappy Medium Earl Wesley Fornell, 2014-11-06 Here Mr Split Foot do as I do exclaimed the child and the spirits obeyed her command Thus in 1848 thirteen year old Margaret Fox inaugurated the age of spiritualism Those early spirit manifestations in a humble New York farmhouse were but the beginning of a grand seance which for the next half century was to see persons returned from the dead walking upon the earth mingling freely with mortal Americans Ceremonies were performed which united in wedlock the living and the dead ghostly schoolboys returned from the land of the spirits to revisit their old schoolhouses upsetting the dignity of earthly classrooms Drivers of owl horsecars were intrigued by beautiful female spirits who rode their cars at night and promptly vanished if approached for a fare The colorful career of Margaret Fox the most famous medium of the era and the fountainhead of the cult of spiritualism attracted the attention of the most prominent public figures of the day For P T Barnum this phenomenon was another novelty to present to the American public Horace Greeley took a personal interest in Margaret and her sister he gave the movement extensive publicity Lincoln often invited Margaret Fox and other mediums to the White House for seances during which attempts were made to invoke the spirit of the Lincolns dead son Members of Congress judges and intellectuals of the day were well acquainted with her and with the spiritualist movement The course of this spirit invasion and the many and varied means by which men communicated with dwellers of the other world are the subjects of this volume With Margaret Fox the spirits spoke by rapping on floor and furniture With others they communicated by writing on slates by touching with ghostly hands by moving furniture one medium was so popular that his furniture followed him about like a pack of dogs Some spirits spoke directly through the mouths of entranced mediums And some were so bold or so talented that they were able to materialize in the flesh before properly receptive groups of people and happy indeed was the devotee who received a warm embrace from a lovely young spirit lady or a handsome ghostly gentleman during such a materialization The spirits who thus displayed their interest in this mortal world soon came to have a considerable influence over whole segments of the American population For some spiritualism was a comforting means of maintaining contact with loved ones now departed For others it was a religion a blessed aid on the road to salvation For still others it provided practical assistance with more earthly problems Many found in it intriguing puzzles for scientific investigation And for the whole country it provided a constant source of excitement interest and entertainment Written in spritely prose and permeated with a grave humor this account of nineteenth century spiritualism will be equally satisfying to the casual reader interested in a good story and to the scholar seeking serious social history

Success ,1922 The Boy's Own Treasury of Sports and Pastimes Boy,John George Wood,John Henry Pepper,1866 Ebube's Atlas of the Invisible Melanie Ayers,2024-12-17 2089 Africa hums with unseen energies a symphony of interwoven realities Beneath the vibrant tapestry of modern life lies a forgotten dimension a realm of ancestral whispers and silenced histories Ebube Udeozor a blind cartographer gifted with extraordinary sensitivity is tasked by the Pan African Alliance to map this spectral world Her neural linked device a fusion of bio engineered technology and African mysticism translates the metaphysical into vivid landscapes within her mind Guided by Ifeanyi her shape shifting guardian spirit Ebube embarks on a journey that will challenge everything she believes From the otherworldly cliffs of Dogon country to the misty peaks of the Drakensberg Mountains Ebube s journey unveils a hidden history Baobab trees hum with ancestral memory forgotten shrines pulsate with latent power and hidden caves whisper forgotten dialects But within this vibrant realm lurks the Mmanwu a parasitic entity feeding on stolen cultural narratives weaving a future devoid of African identity Ebube s mission transforms into a desperate race against erasure The spectral whispers become a cacophony blurring the lines between her consciousness and the collective trauma of the past Joined by Aisha Mkhize a brilliant historian Ebube navigates a perilous landscape where the past present and future collide Together they must confront the insidious emptiness of the Mmanwu not with force but with the vibrant tapestry of their own narratives their own ancestral memories In the heart of the Cradle of Humankind Ebube faces her ultimate test Can she weave a counter narrative powerful enough to heal the spectral realm and safeguard Africa s future Or will she be consumed by the very emptiness she seeks to fill Ebube s Atlas of the Invisible is more than a map it s a battle cry for cultural reclamation a testament to the enduring power of African narratives and a journey into the heart of what it means to truly see
