Suitable Groom:

A SUITABLE GROOM Liz Fielding, Akemi Maki, 2015-01-21 Veronica Grant has a problem she needs a date for a wedding or she'll be henpecked by all her relatives Fergus Kavanagh has a similar dilemma His sisters are dead set on setting him up with any number of women he has no interest in A chance encounter on a train gives them the opportunity to fix both their problems in one swoop but Veronica begins to think that Fergus might be a suitable groom beyond the facade

Domestic Goddesses Henrike Donner, 2016-05-23 Based on extensive fieldwork in Calcutta this book provides the first ethnography of how middle class women in India understand and experience economic change through transformations of family life It explores their ideas practices and experiences of marriage childbirth reproductive change and their children's education and addresses the impact that globalization is having on the new middle classes in Asia more generally from a domestic perspective By focusing on maternity the book explores subjective understandings of the way intimate relationships and the family are affected by India's liberalization policies and the neo liberal ideologies that accompany through an analysis of often competing ideologies and multiple practices And by drawing attention to women's agency as wives mothers and grandmothers within these new frameworks Domestic Goddesses discusses the experiences of different age groups affected by these changes Through a careful analysis of women's narratives the domestic sphere is shown to represent the key site for the remaking of Indian middle class citizens in a global world

The Islamic Marriage Contract Asifa Quraishi, Frank E. Vogel, 2022-10-07 It is often said that marriage in Islamic law is a civil contract not a sacrament If this is so this means that the marriage contract is largely governed by the same rules as other contracts such as sale or hire But at the same time marriage is a profound concern of the Islamic scriptures of Qur'an and Sunna and thus at the very core of the law and morality of Islam and of the individual familial and social life of Muslims This volume collects papers from many disciplines examining the Muslim marriage contract Articles cover doctrines as to marriage contracts e.g. may a wife stipulate monogamy historical instances e.g. legal advice from thirteenth century Spain comparisons with Jewish and canon law contemporary legal and social practice and projects of activists for women worldwide Demonstrating a new and powerful focus for comparative and historical inquiries into Islamic law and social practices this book marks a fresh point of departure for the study of Muslim women

The Micro-politics of Microcredit Mohammad Jasim Uddin, 2015-05-01 Microcredit has been seen in recent decades as having great potential for aiding development in poor developing countries with Bangladesh being one of the countries which has pioneered microcredit and implemented it most widely This book based on extensive original research explores how microcredit works in practice and assesses its effectiveness It discusses how microcredit usually channelled through women is often passed to the men of the family a practice disapproved of by some but regarded as acceptable by borrowers who have a communal approach to debt rather than viewing debt as something held by single individuals The book demonstrates how the rules around microcredit are often seen as irksome by the borrowers how lenders often charge high rates of interest and work primarily to preserve their institutions thereby going against the spirit of the microcredit movement and how borrowers often end up on a downward spiral deeper and deeper in debt Overall the book argues that although microcredit does much good it also has many drawbacks A Good Groom is Hard to Find
